

Area Annual Payroll To Increase $1,130,000

Automatic Pay Boosts At Local Steel Plants Start Next Month

A million dollar increase in the area's annual payroll is anticipated with the seven-cent-an-hour contract wage boost to be given automatically to about 7200 workers in local steel plants.

The $1,130,000 increase figure is to be added to the area's estimated annual payroll of $100,000,000 and begins next Monday, Oct. 1, for steelworkers. Other unions at the plants also are to receive similar increases during the month. With added benefits, the hourly increase ranges from seven to nine cents an hour.

The 7200 workers, mostly steelworkers, are employed at four local steel plants — Granite City Steel Co., 4350; General Steel Industries, Inc., 1700; Lake Steel Co., 600; and American Steel Foundries, 550.

Based on 40-hour work weeks and 2000 to 2500-hour work years, the $1,130,000 annual increase figure does not include added increases which will result from incentive bonuses, piecework rates and overtime and holiday pay.

Also, in some plants, vacation pay is on a percentage basis, and there are wage bracket adjustments to be included.

Plant officers said these figures are intangible and could vary greatly.

Bi-State Agency Has Qualified Bid

A qualified counter-proposal for purchase of revenue bonds to finance construction of a multi-million dollar grain elevator on the Chain of Rocks canal harbor was taken under advisement Monday afternoon by the Bi-State Development Agency.

Col. R. E. Smyser, executive director of the agency, said the elevator committee will study the proposal and make recommendations at the next meeting of the board of directors in about two weeks.

Sealed bids for purchase of $5,500,000 in bonds were sought and accepted until Monday noon at the agency's St. Louis office. Instead of bids a single counter-proposal was received. Successful sale of the bonds is all that remains to clear the way for construction to begin on the 4-million bushel elevator.

Smyser said the board of directors' meeting scheduled for today was postponed to give the elevator committee time to study the proposal and prepare recommendations. Two weeks ago, he said, some points will have to be cleared with the Illinois Grain Corp., a Chicago firm which will operate the completed elevator under a long-term contract.

The proposal under study was submitted by the firm of Crutenden-Polesta & Co., Chicago, representing a syndicate composed of itself, Allan-May & Co. of New York, and Mullany-Well & Co. of Chicago.

Need 30,000 New Homes In County By 1980

(Fifth of a series on proposed adoption of zoning for unincorporated areas of Madison county.)

On the basis of population projections, 30,000 new dwellings will be required by 1980 in Madison county to accommodate its future residents. Replacement of old houses will even more.

The study report was prepared by Evert Kincaid and Associates, planning consultants, in their study of the county's economy.

The study report urges enactment of county zoning following a series of public hearings starting in October.

Madison county's stock of housing stood at 17,179 dwelling units in April 1960, a gain of 15,635 since 1950, the report points out.

"The county's housing supply increased at a faster rate than its population during the past decade," the report stated with 23.2%. It is reckoned that approximately 20,400 living accommodations were situated in the unincorporated areas in 1960.

"In 1950, owner-occupied units accounted for 64.7% of the county total of 35,544 habitations; in 1960, the figure was 67.1%. Preliminary data suggests that the owner-occupied ratio may have risen by now to around 70% for the entire county and

Mayor Vetoes City Employee Retirement Law

Veto of the ordinance passed last week by Granite City council members setting a compulsory retirement age of 65 for city employees was nearly over-ridden Monday night by council members.

An unsuccessful 10-to-5 vote to override the veto was preceded by a 20-minute debate by the aldermen and comments by Jack Green, business agent for Laborers' Local 397, who said his union opposed the 65-year compulsory retirement.

In his veto message, Mayor Davis stated:

"I am vetoing the ordinance. While I believe that the general purpose and intent of this ordinance is good and I am in accord with that purpose, I feel that this ordinance should be part of an overall personnel practice and policy program and this program should not be passed piecemeal.

"I further feel that consideration should be given to the ordinance to department heads and certain other classes of employees. I also feel that all recognize that merely because a man has reached 65 years of age, this does not mean his usefulness to the city is ended.

"Some of our most valued employees are men who have many years of experience, which is of incalculable value to us, and this experience will be lost if they are to be retired at the age of 65."

Challenge Overall Policy

First to challenge the veto was Alderman Charles Meyer, who stressed the need for the city to provide advancement prospects for younger employees and for the city to be placed on an operating basis such as followed in industries, many of which have compulsory retirement at 65.

Others protesting the veto were Alderman Steve Baasch, Donald Partney, Casner Skush, Mrs. Gabrielle Bettine and Edmond Bartosick.

They also stressed the need to add promotions for younger men, and that possible layoffs could be avoided.

Hospital Demolition Cost Set At $32,865

Razing of the old hospital building at 21st and Iowa streets will cost more than its original construction price.

Built in 1904 at a cost of $30,000, the four-story structure will be removed by the Tom Studebaker Construction Co., which submitted a low bid of $32,865 for the job.

The building is being cleared to create more parking space for the staff at St. Elizabeth Hospital, where six beds were opened at 2 p.m. yesterday. Demolition of the structure will begin as soon as final approval is granted by the hospital administrator.

County Ministers To Discuss Plans On Tavern Hours

"Concerted action" by Madison county ministers to return to uniform tavern closing hours will be the topic of a meeting at 10 a.m. Wednesday, Oct. 4, at St. John's Methodist Church, Edwardsville.

The closing time for taverns in unincorporated county areas was changed to 2:30 a.m. weekdays and 3:30 a.m. Sundays as a surprise action at the July meeting of the County Board of Supervisors. The "secrecy and haste" were criticized by local ministers, but the county board meeting to urge a return to the 1 a.m. law.

Next week's meeting was arranged by the Quad-City Ministerial Association, in cooperation with Wood River ministers. Pastors from throughout the county are being invited to participate and decide on a course of action.

Rev. Vernie Barnett, Niedringhaus Methodist Church pastor and social action committee chairman of the local association, said joint action by the ministers will be proposed, with the goal of obtaining an earlier closing law at the December meeting of the county board.

Major topics at Wednesday's session will be what the July law means to the community and how it can affect each community. Ministers also will discuss the differences between the information and their view to the public, Rev. Barnett said.

Madison Police Chief Endorsed For Sheriff Race

Barney Fraundorf, Madison chief of police, is a candidate for the office of Madison county sheriff in the April 1962 Democratic primary election he told the Press-Record today when contacted about reports of the candidacy.

Fraundorf was endorsed for the post at a meeting of Venice township political leaders last night. It was learned. The meeting was held at the McKinley Bridge office in Venice.

Efforts to reach Walter Simmonds, Venice, county Democratic chairman, and Christ Costoff of Madison, Venice township Democratic chairman, proved unsuccessful today.

Madison Mayor Stephen M. Fraundorf said the group discussed county issues. Asked about the endorsement, the mayor said "there was something to that effect," but added that he did not know whether the chief was ready to make a formal announcement at this time.

Fraundorf was contacted next.

Committee Plans To Clarify Status Of Mayor, Supt.

A delegation of about 20 Granite City citizens was told Monday night by council public works committee members that the investigation into the position of mayor and superintendent of streets was settled and that the investigation would be completed next Monday night probably would be restricted to clarification of the authorities of the two elected offices.

Any contemplated investigation of street department jurisdiction was canceled during the brief council session which preceded the committee session.

Eliminated from the minutes of the previous council meeting, when Mayor Davis relinquished his control over the department but requested an investigation into the position of the motion which stated, "referred to the Public Works Committee for a study of the investigation of conditions as they exist in the street department and bring in a complete report to the city council as to what is wrong, if anything, in that department."

Mayor Davis's change in position was called for by the council, which was agreed to by Mayor Davis and approved by the council.

The motion as it now stands states: "Reading by Mayor Davis of his letter to the city council concerning the operation of the street department and requesting the matter be referred to the Public Works committee."

Mrs. Bettine, a member of the Public Works committee, said the call for an investigation was not in the motion made at last week's session, but that the motion said the committee was to investigate the differences between the mayor and superintendent.

Mayor Davis agreed that the committee would be asked to report to the city council as to what is wrong, if anything, in that department."

General Fund Hit

With the city's sales tax revenue, funds are expected to be used for general operating expenses, the comptroller said. Last year the city financed the $180,000 of the general operation through the sales tax reserve in order to cut the 1960 tax levy.

"Anticipating the sewer repair expenses that we have had and continue to have, we intend to transfer from the sales tax fund to the general fund the amount necessary to avoid a deficit at the end of the fiscal year," Doher said. "But due to the sewer difficulties our sales tax fund is depleted and we are now paying sewer repair bills out of cash fund in order to pay sewer repair invoices now received."

Just what additional expenses will be incurred this year remain unknown, since the city is only beginning to adopt recommendations of the Southern Illinois University study report. Included in it are suggestions for hiring additional employees, and the city's new budget includes salaries for an additional attorney, an engineer and a secretary for the Planning Commission and building inspector.

The report also recommends hiring additional police and firemen, but no provisions were included in the new budget adopted last July.

850,000 Expenses

The comptroller estimates city expenses for 1961 at $850,000.

Chastain said the parade will be held Saturday, Oct. 7, forming on the downtown Granite City Steel Building parking lot. He said categories in which prizes will be awarded, as well as names and route of the parade, will be announced later.

The parade was an annual event for several years but had not been held the last two years.

GC Expects $174,500 Deficit Next May 1

Council Caucus To Be Called To Reduce Cost Of City Operations

City finances are nearing rock bottom and a deficit of $174,525 is expected by the end of the current 1961-62 fiscal year next April 30, according to a special report prepared by Granite City Comptroller John Doher.

The comptroller notes that the city for sewer repair work in the Namolli area and along 20th street has depleted the $170,000 sales tax reserve on hand last May 1 and the city is now paying sewer repair bills from the working cash fund reserve.

Recognizing the problem, council members proposed a special caucus session to be called by the mayor for the purpose of discussing city finances and possible solutions.

Layoffs Discussed

Alderman Samuel Whitmer, who recommended the meeting, asked for the comptroller also to be present. "We've got to find out where we're going and what can be done. The council is present weeks has discussed the probable need to economize through layoffs of employees and curtailment of special projects.

Doher has advised the council of the city's financial plight in an effort to bring about an economy program to prevent a complete wipeout of the working cash fund, which amounted to $165,500 on Aug. 31.

If the working cash fund is depleted and expenses continue at a high rate during the fiscal year, the city might be forced to issue bonds for general operating expenses, the comptroller said. Last year the city financed the $180,000 of the general operation through the sales tax reserve in order to cut the 1960 tax levy.

"Anticipating the sewer repair expenses that we have had and continue to have, we intend to transfer from the sales tax fund to the general fund the amount necessary to avoid a deficit at the end of the fiscal year," Doher said. DR. LOUIS B. HOWARD, dean of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, who will speak at the annual Business-Industry - Agriculture dinner at St. John United Church of Christ next Thursday.

U of I Dean To Speak Here Next Thursday

Dr. Louis B. Howard, dean of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture, will be the speaker at the 16th annual Business-Industry - Agriculture Dinner sponsored by the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce here Oct. 5.

Dr. Howard has been dean of the U of I college, director of the Illinois Agricultural Experiment Station, and director of the Extension Service in Agriculture and Home Economics since 1954. He joined the U of I staff in 1948.

Widely known for his research work in the fields of food processing and utilization of agricultural commodities for industrial purposes, Dr. Howard holds bachelor's and master's degrees from Purdue University, and a Ph. D. from the University of Chicago.

Before coming to the university, Dr. Howard was head of the Bureau of Agricultural and Industrial Chemistry for the U.S. Department of Agriculture. He holds a patent on the process of dehydro-freezing, a method of preserving food.

At the annual dinner here, to be held at St. John's United Church of Christ, Dr. Howard will speak on "Food For Survival."

Purpose of the annual dinner is to promote better relations between local businessmen and farmers, according to Howard W. Kaseberg, chairman of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce agricultural committee.

Kaseberg said 180 invitations were mailed last week to businessmen and farmers, and urged today that those planning to attend make their reservations at the C. of C. office as soon as possible.

Farmers and their wives attend the dinner as guests of local businessmen, Kaseberg said.

Returns From Library Trustees' Conference

Richard Kraft of Granite City returned late Monday from Carbondale, where he had attended a day-long conference of library trustees and librarians at Giant City state park lodge.

Kraft, who is vice-president of the trustees' section of the Illinois Library Association, was chairman of the morning session and reported during the afternoon on the annual summer meeting of the trustees' section in Cleveland, O.

The approximately 80 persons attending the conference were told of a growing need for professionally trained librarians in public libraries by Miss Eleanor Ferguson of Chicago, executive secretary of the state library group of the American Library Association.

Adjacent Buildings Slow Work On Bank Driveway

Work on a new driveway to serve the Granite City Trust & Savings Bank is being slowed by the existence of adjacent buildings, Ernest A. Karandjef, bank president and trust officer, said this week.

Removal of the old Schermer Hardware store building at 1920 Delmar avenue to clear a path for the driveway is in progress, Karandjef said no completion date for the project has been set. He said much of the demolition of the old building will have to be done by hand to prevent damage to adjacent structures.

The opening will provide a two-lane Delmar avenue exit for the bank's driveway window customers, Karandjef said.

County Tax Aid One of 13 Items For Special Session

Although the official call to the state legislature has not yet been made, Gov. Otto Kerner said this week that he expects to include tax relief for Madison county and seven other counties among 13 topics at an Oct. 10 special session.

Congressional district reapportionment will be included in the official proclamation governing the scope of the session, whether or not Democrats and Republicans have agreed on the boundaries, the governor said. However, state revenue amendment proposals remain indefinite.

"This is it," Gov. Kerner said in presenting a 13-item agenda to newsmen Monday afternoon at Springfield. "If you were a betting man, you could bet that they all go on the call."

Follows Court Ruling
Proposed legislation affecting the eight counties would enable them to continue general tax rates at the 1951 level, a practice followed until a state Supreme Court ruling in May of this year. Citing growth in population and services, the counties have sought permission to continue taxing at the rate that has been customary during the past decade.

The governor said he will suggest that the rate be changed to aid the counties on a temporary basis. The situation then can be reviewed at the regular legislative session in 1963, he added.

Corporation Taxes
Other proposed agenda items include:

A raise in corporation taxes from 1.20 to 1% of income to 3.20 of 1%. This would yield an estimated $4,000,000 in the first two years.

Eighteen additional municipal court judges for Cook county. A $3,100,000 subsidy for the Chicago Transit Authority for half-fare transportation of school children.

A half-cent sales tax in the service occupation basket tax, from three to three and a half cents, raising it to the same level as the present state sales tax. This would yield about $8,000,000 to the state in a biennium.

Payment-in-kind requirement on issuance of permits for oversized vehicles, instead of certified or cashier's checks.

Temporary Mortgage Law
A temporary chattel mortgage law, providing a basis to reclaim goods when installment buyers fail to make payments.

Authorization for the state to use the minimum security prison now being built near Vienna.

Clarification of authority for road district commissioners to erect traffic control signs.

School district liability insurance. Gov. Kerner said companies that write insurance for districts feel that they now have no right to question the negligence of third parties.

The governor's announcement followed separate meetings with Democratic and Republican party leaders. No GOP commitment was sought or given, and the Republicans will discuss their stand when the session is convened.

May Urge Revenue Study
Kerner said a new revenue article for the state constitution, which would be subject to a referendum, will not be placed on the agenda unless legislators find an area of general agreement. Only the subjects included in the call can be considered during a special session.

If there is no agreement on a revenue article before the session, the governor said he will list on the agenda legislation for a revenue study commission and $130,000 appropriation. He said the commission might be able to complete a study by next spring, at which time he could call another special session of the Illinois Senate and House.

State party chairmen, Congressmen and legislative leaders reported "considerable progress" at a meeting on redistricting, which the governor did not attend. They echoed his recent statements that any redistricting should be done on a partisan basis, but no specific maps were considered. The same group plans to meet again.

Early Tax Sale Planned

The Madison county treasurer's office is preparing the delinquent tax list with the hopes of having it published in the latter part of November. The tax sale has been set tentatively for early December, one month earlier than in previous years.

pression years of 1930-39; 18% in 1920-29; and 32.3% in 1919 or earlier.

A breakdown of dwellings in unincorporated areas lists 42.2% postwar, 6% during world war I, 11% in the 1920s and 39.9% in the 1930s and 29.9% earlier.

"In 1950, nearly 5000 living accommodations — 9% of the total — were designated by the U. S. Census as dilapidated. In the unincorporated areas, nearly 1200 units were similarly classified, or 8.4% of the total. It is believed that there are at least as many substandard dwellings at present, especially in the western portion of the county."

"On the basis of population projections, the number of dwellings required to accommodate future residents by 1970 will be 14,200 in 15,700, including 9100 to 10,000 in cities and 5100 to 9700 in rural areas.

"By 1980, another 15,200 to 16,700 units will be necessary, including 9400 to 10,800 in incorporated places and 5800 to 6400 in unincorporated areas.

"The lower figures are based on an overall average of 3.3 persons per dwelling unit, and the higher projections on an average of 3.0 persons per unit. There are indications that the lower projections may be more applicable to the unincorporated areas and that the higher projections may be more appropriate for the incorporated places.

"An additional number of dwellings will be required, of course, to replace existing substandard and obsolete structures and those that will become so by 1970 and 1980.

"In order to promote the county's fiscal solvency general-

Engineering Support Jobs Open In Civil Service

Civil Service positions for engineering support type positions are now open in St. Louis, as previous announcements have failed to attract sufficient persons to fill vacancies, according to an announcement by the Army Board of Civil Service Examiners, 815 Olive street, St. Louis.

Persons with experience or education of a subprofessional or drafting nature who are interested in receiving consideration for these positions are asked to contact the executive secretary at his chest on Monday at $4345 to $5355.

by and to assure funds for the various capital improvements. Future population growth will necessitate, very low-priced new housing in unincorporated areas should be discouraged.

$16,000 Homes Needed
"The maximum possible amount of residential construction should be confined to housing that will at least be self-supporting from the standpoint of producing property taxes.

"In the case of single-family houses, it would be fiscally advantageous to encourage the erection of homes priced at about $16,000 and upward, including land. Such housing would not only benefit all taxpayers but also would tend to attract to the county economically adequate residents.

"It also is appropriate, especially in view of proposed new federal housing legislation, that consideration be given to programming living quarters suitable for the county's increasing number of elderly and retired residents."

Nurse's New Sports Car Stolen, Chased, Wrecked

When Miss Dolores Clyde, 2713 Idaho avenue, bought a new sports car Saturday, she no doubt expected to drive it many thousand pleasant miles. Instead, she had driven it just 119 miles Monday evening — and had just paid cash for it when it was stolen, demolished and burned.

Miss Clyde, 22, is a registered nurse and supervisor of the Central Supply department at St. Elizabeth Hospital. She picked up her new white hardtop sports car Saturday from a St. Louis dealer, then took it back Monday for installation of a radio antenna. Ten minutes later the car was taken from in front of the garage.

"I thought they were kidding me," said Miss Clyde. "Then I looked out and saw a lot of people running around, and I knew it was true. I immediately reported, the stolen auto was soon spotted by two St. Louis police reserve patrolmen, who gave pursuit. In-the ensuing chase the driver of Miss Clyde's car side-swiped two parked autos, lost a front tire, and continued to drive at high speeds down the street, the police close behind.

Finally, the second police car, blocking its way. The car crashed into the police vehicle and caught fire, its three occupants escaping uninjured. But Miss Clyde's gleaming new sports car was destroyed.

Both she and the dealer are pressing charges against the three men who were in the car, Miss Clyde said. They were arrested and booked on suspicion of automobile theft by St. Louis police.

Fortunately, said Miss Clyde, the car was insured. "I hope to know what the insurance company is going to do in a few days," she said. "All I know is that I want another sports car — this was my first one."

Repairs Completed In 20th St. Sewer

Repairs to the 51-inch sewer line under 20th street were completed about 11 p.m. Monday, it was reported by A. W. Pearson of the city engineering staff.

Pumps and pipelines used to move sewage above ground between manholes are being removed from the project which started early in the summer.

The 51-inch trunk line from Omaha to Iowa street was lined with a 2½-inch layer of concrete applied under pressure in a process called gunning. The project, with the final bills still due, has cost the city $124,445.

Concrete work on the motor fuel tax project to widen the street to four lanes from Madison avenue to Edwardsville road is nearing completion, and Supt. of Streets William Warfield reported to the Public Works Committee Monday night that he had been asked by the state highway department to replace street name and stop signs.

A state highway official said today his office would ask the city to reopen the street to traffic should there be a delay between the finish of the concrete widening and the application of an asphalt surface. The state official said it is hoped the asphalt can be carried out before cold weather sets in.

The city closed the street which carries U.S. Highway 67a, to prevent collapse of the sewer line while workers were inside.

The closure ends a long drive by local civic, industrial and labor organizations to prevent the action, including requests to the IRS in Washington, D.C., by Rep. Melvin Price and U.S. Senators Paul A. Douglas and Everett M. Dirksen.

A late dessert course was served, and the other men attending was Mrs. Peggy Hickey. The next meeting will be held Oct. 24 at the home of Mrs. June Nibourich, 1337 Spring avenue.

Use Of Subsidy Without Control Viewed "Unfair"

Allen Van Wyck, president of Illinois Power Co., announced today, "Our company intends to carry its story to the people of Illinois as vigorously as we are able" about the movement of REA rural electric cooperatives into suburban, city and industrial areas.

An information program has been launched, he said, to bring to the public's attention facts of the co-op expansions.

"Many of these federally subsidized cooperatives have gone beyond their original purpose of bringing electricity to farmers and are now, with the aid of government subsidies without any regulation, taking on industrial, commercial and urban customers," Van Wyck said.

"Farmers who worked so hard to organize the rural cooperatives are losing control of their own cooperatives. Four out of five new members of rural cooperatives are non-farm customers so the farmers are becoming a minority in their own organization."

He said that the company's information program would be based on the principle of discussion and debate on the facts.

"Our people will write letters, make speeches, and spread the facts in individual conversations," he said.

He made the announcement at a meeting at the company's Deatur headquarters at 1100 W. Madison St., including the managers of the company's three service areas.

Van Wyck said that one of the purposes of the program was to demonstrate the necessity of replacing the rural cooperatives.

ment system, but details have not yet been worked out.

During Monday's meeting with the federal official, D. B. Morton of Springfield, a representative of the Illinois State Water Board, gave the progress report for 24 Illinois cities, pointing out progress has been satisfactory in most municipalities, except the 12 cities within the 96.32 square mile area of the East Side Levee & Sanitary District. Alton is to have a referendum next month for a bond issue to build a treatment plant.

Summary Of Report

In summarizing Monday's reports, Stein said Missouri was making rapid progress toward halting pollution of the river.

"I realize the situation is different on the Illinois side of the river," he added, "especially with so many jurisdictions to consider. In the St. Louis area there is just one district covering the city, the county and 94 other communities. The trouble is compounded in Illinois with so many communities and industries which can go their own way or join together in projects."

"But the fact that it is more difficult in Illinois does not mean the situation must be cleared up. There have been several bright spots, but on the whole, Illinois is far behind schedule."

The schedule was adopted at a similar conference in March 1958, when it was agreed that communities and industries in Illinois would arrange for financing by Jan. 1, 1959, have construction under way by July 1959, and have sewage treatment facilities in operation by Dec. 31, 1961.

"The government did not impose these dates on the states," Stein said. "The timetable was proposed by the states themselves and we agreed to it as reasonable. But there are still large areas in which nothing seems to have been done."

"We have a pretty sizeable pollution problem here, and it must be cleaned up. It will be better if it can be resolved by the primary responsibility of the states. But time is running out, and we do have to take action. If remedial action is not taken soon, our action will be ineffectual."

"It's our job to see that the river be made fit for use, and we can't keep coming back here in this is the fifth such meeting — to hear reasons for lack of progress."

hourly for men with at least 18-months on the job, and will increase women's pay from the present $1.56 to $1.61 per hour. The contract also provides for seven paid holidays, the same as the current agreement.

In addition to the wage increase, the contract allows leave up to three days for a death in the immediate family, plus up to 40 hours for jury duty with no loss in wages.

under the regulation of the Illinois Commerce Commission, as are the private power companies.

"Some cooperatives have misinterpreted the original intent of the REA Act and are seeking all classes of customers. Without regulation or legal responsibility, they are using the advantages of the 2% loans supplied through REA to invade the territories served by the investor-owned companies, such as Illinois Power Company, whose rates and territories are subject to approval by Illinois Commerce Commission."

"We do not believe that this unfair and irresponsible expansion of tax-subsidized electric power is in the best interest of the public."

Van Wyck cited as another feature of the program the REA's policy of encouraging rural cooperatives to offer 2 percent electrical service. He said that while at the same time they are actually paying the taxes that supply the bulk of the REA's income, more than 98% of all rural homes in Illinois Power territory enjoy the use of electric service. He said that more than 45,000 of these are direct customers of Illinois Power, and thousands of others are served with REA's electric energy generated by Illinois Power and distributed by the rural cooperatives to their members.

resulting from the city's financial plight would reduce the number of younger men in the city department. Barsicki said retirement would aid in getting more younger men on the departments.

Union's Stand

Businessmen and Green said his union, representing the street department, is opposed to compulsory retirement as long as a man is mentally and physically capable of doing his job.

"You don't get rid of a man from this and the U.S. President points to a lot of abuses going on the shell because of retirement," he said.

"It's almost impossible for a man to exist on social security. These men are taxpayers in this city, too, and they have devoted as much as 40 years to city service," Green continued.

"You don't get rid of persons on social security."

Refutes Green's Statement

Barsicki said council members he was in wage negotiating sessions with Green and other union leaders a few months ago and they did not oppose a compulsory retirement.

"We were told that as long as the $25 monthly pay increases were granted, the unions did not oppose retirements or layoffs."

A breakdown of the vote follows: For overriding the veto—Aldermen Walter Nor, Meyer, Partney, Estill Van Schmitt, Paul Rutledge, Skubish, Basarich, Mrs. Beline, Arthur Wiesner and Barsicki. Supporting the mayor were—Samuel Whitmer, Samuel Shackelford, Frank Johnson, Joseph Cuvar and Ford Johnson.

County Still Seeking

Owners Of Stripped Autos

County authorities said today they have not yet been advised of the identity of owners of two automobiles found last Friday afternoon in weeds behind an abandoned farm house along Bend road.

The cars, both late models, were stripped of wheels, tires, batteries, heaters and radios. The sheriff's office has sent out lists of numbers of the cars to the secretary of state's office at Springfield in an effort to trace ownership through registration in Illinois.

Faces Two Charges

Thomas E. Walsh, 40, of 2220 O'Hare avenue, was charged at 1:15 a.m. today with sexual abuse of a minor and possession of a stolen car. Walsh was arrested by St. Clair and Warren avenues and driving a car with improper license. He posted his driver's license as bond.

"It was in the summer of 1921 that the park was bought on credit. We had to issue anticipation warrants because we had not received any taxes as yet. We bought the park from the Nidruphus estate by putting $1000 down and paying $1000 a year for the next five years."

Jumping to the January park board meeting of 1947, Worthen said there was talk of having a 25-year celebration at the park. H. D. 4 GC Police To Attend SIU Training Courses

Granite City Police Chief Raymond Willard said today four members of his force will attend police training courses to be held at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale.

Detective Ronald Veizer and Patrolman Everett Kelly will attend the basic course, Oct. 1-7, and Lt. George Teller and Detective Michael Devine are enrolled in the advanced training course, Oct. 8-14. The city council allocated each man $100 for expenses recently.

Faculty for both courses will include state police, representatives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Secret Service, state's attorney and local police. The course will delve into public relations, laws of arrest, search and seizure, interviews, signed statements and confessions, traffic, crime scene search and scientific aids, defense tactics, criminal psychology and the office of superintendent of police.

Delegation Urged

The delegation urged the committee not to recommend the office of superintendent of streets be changed from elective to appointive.

They were told by Chairman Samuel Whitmer that the committee's function was merely to advise the city council. The authorities of the offices of mayor and street superintendent, and any action to change the street department post from elective to appointive would be up to the city council to the next city election in 1963.

Member Frank Vesel commented, "The feud is done and over with. The mayor made a public apology. We have met with the superintendent, mayor and as far as we're concerned the dispute is over. What we're doing now is to determine if more can be given for the tax dollar and to try to reach a conclusion for the betterment of the community."

Mrs. Bettine's question, "If the feud is over, why are we meeting?" went unanswered.

First member of the citizen delegation to speak was David L. Gantt, 2001 Fehling road, who urged the committee members to listen to the opinion of the people. He said the committee should be possible loss of an elected office. Others in the delegation supported his stand.

Seek Full Explanation

Gantt said the public would like a full explanation of what has taken place and the committee's study to better know "the discrepancies between the office of mayor and superintendent of streets."

He added, "We know politics plays an important part... but we believe the committee should keep this in mind, that we feel we are losing representation by degrees and what this city decides may either be inspiring to the people or push them deeper into apathy."

Gantt continued by saying the citizens of the city are interested in economy, and "we also want to know what direction our government is going to take. You should consider the SIU report seriously."

Dr. Leo L. Coleman, member of the Granite City Civic League, said the city should realize the "feud" is costing money. We're interested in fair government and believe the mayor stepped out of bounds in taking over the department. We don't think any of the aldermen asked him to take that action. If he is to be appointive, do it properly."

As Chairman Whitmer asked the group to leave and wait until next Monday for the committee's report "before you start chewing on us," he was questioned concerning the legality of a closed session by James Worthen. Whitmer replied the committee would take no direct action but would present its findings to the council next Monday night for a decision. "It will either be a report from the entire committee, or there might be a majority and a minority report."

The committee went into its closed session, present were: Mayor Samuel Whitmer, Mrs. Bettine, Joseph Cuvar and Paul Rutledge.

Supt. of Streets William Ward said he was present for a short time but departed before the committee began preparing its report.

idea of a War Memorial fountain was made. The park board authorized me to contact the local veterans' organizations to start some sort of a movement, and with this the memorial association was born," explained Worthen.

"Donations from $1 to $1000 started coming in. When it was all over we had $11,500. We even had a building a fieldhouse at the park or a $15 million hospital, but we couldn't do either with $11,500."

Park Rededicated

"This park was originally dedicated in 1921 to soldiers of the first world war, but now we've rededicated it to all servicemen," concluded Worthen.

Barry Loman, park board president, accepted the fountain for the park district from Worthen, and a salute was fired by a Granite City Engineer Detachment. Taps followed, as played by a member of the Granite City high school band, which also donated the music.

Hours Of Operation

Hours of operation of the fountain are noon to 11 p.m. daily with lights being turned on at 4 p.m. It was indicated that the fountain will be turned on earlier next month with the end of daylight saving time. More landscaping by the park district is expected by the end of the month.

Of top interest locally will be the meetings of Collinsville (1-1) and Granite City (1-1) in Granite City and Madison (0-1) with Cahokia (1-1) in Granite City. Edwardsville (0-1) meets unbeaten (2-0) Wood River on the other field and Alton (1-1) Redbirds will seek to ground the East St. Louis Flyers (1-0-1).

'Indy' Driver To Speak Here About Highway Safety

Bill Cheesbourg, well known stock, sprint and big car driver and veteran of four Indianapolis 500-mile races, will conduct a program on the perils of speed and recklessness on the highway at Granite City high school Wednesday, Oct. 4.

Cheesbourg is one of eight drivers who are members of a nation-wide educational safe driving program which was developed six years ago by a spark plug manufacturing company. His appearance here is through the sponsorship of L&M Auto Supply, 1835 Madison avenue. The Downstate Fisherman

By PETE BROWN

(Compiled by the Southern Illinois University Information Service from area reports.)

Public sentiment about recreational development of the Crab Orchard Refuge complex can be divided roughly into two camps: one favoring a maximum effort, private and otherwise, to improve the area for tourism; and the other, somewhat less vocal, which is interested mostly in the three-lake reserve as a sort of regional hunting and fishing preserve.

The first is motivated to a large extent by economics and the effect of local development could have on the region's collective purse. The second is dominated by sportsmen and recreational purists to whom the word "resort" is anathema.

In the middle of the two, but leaning perceptibly toward the purist, is the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service, overseer of the 44,000-acre refuge. With the opening of Devil's Kitchen Lake only a few months away and public use of the two existing lakes breaking records every summer, Fish and Wildlife is confronted with some decision-making.

At the heart of the matter is the camper, 1961 style, a breed at some remove from the pre-war variety to whom a sleeping bag and Coleman lantern were barely permissible luxuries. Today's camper heads for the not-so-wild with most of the accoutrements of urban living conveniently at hand in his own wheeled home-away-from-home. In many camps, the urbanized tastes are accommodated with laundry machines, hot and cold water, flush toilets and pavement. His excursions beyond this temporary sub-urb are infrequent.

The long-established blueprint for recreational use development of the Refuge has earmarked Little Grassy for group camping, Crab Orchard for public utilization, and Devil's Kitchen for private cabin sites. But beyond the specifics, the Service always envisioned the whole area as something of a semi-private enclave for the region's sportsmen and outdoors lovers, not as a tourist mecca. If any one attitude can ably on the way out. "Fifty campers in Grassy's public use area is too many," says Carter. Will any of the Crab Orchard development funds be used in all-weather access roads on the south side? No. In fact, access into these free-lance camping spots and the Grassy Bay goose-hunting hotspot (The "Slaughter Pen") will in time be closed. If they want a home away from home, they should go to a resort.

However, the task of providing "quality" in the face of ever-growing numbers of self-sufficient campers is becoming increasingly difficult. The Service is finding it even more difficult to explain its philosophy. As Carter says, "The average tourist or camp vacationer comes here and expects to find something like a city park—grass nicely mowed, handy parking space, all the comforts. This is not a city park."

The Service has planned $1,500,000 for development of Refuge recreational facilities over the next 10 years. Half of this is for completion of blacktop roads at Devil's Kitchen. A modest amount will go for sanitary facilities, water and campsite development at Grassy. The rest is slated for Crab Orchard—roads, water, sanitary facilities, and parking. Within the next few weeks, bids will be due for operation of concessions at Little Grassy and Devil's Kitchen (10-year leases), and bids are being sought for opening of a new dock and concession on Crab Orchard to be built by private capital under a 20-year lease. Surveying crews are at work laying out cabin locations on Devil's Kitchen and lot drawings will be coming up next spring.

At this juncture, then, Carter and the Refuge staff are facing a showdown between quality and quantity and it appears likely that over the next few years some blows are going to be struck for the former. At Devil's Kitchen next summer there will be 30 camping sites located in the concession area. No overnight camping will be permitted anywhere else on the lake. "When they're filled, the latecomers will just have to go somewhere else," says Carter and Refuge Project Manager Harry Stiles. At Grassy a minimum of 10 trailer and 10 tent sites is the ultimate goal and on-site electricity is prob-

Alton Varsity Harriers Win 17-41; GC Sophs Edge Jr. Redbirds 27-29

Herschell Gill's winning time of 9:01 Tuesday afternoon set a mark which future cross-country runners will shoot at as the Alton runner paced his squad to a 17-41 win over Granite City high school in the opening meet for both clubs.

The harrier event was the first held around a new 1.5-10/10th mile course in Wilson Park, which will be used in all Granite City home meets this fall. GC's promising crop of sophomores prevented an Alton sweep by winning the second-year meet by a slim 27-29 margin. Pat Harris' and Charles Hayes finished 1-2 in the sophomore more grind, which was run over the same course as the varsity meet.

The Redbirds captured the first four places in the varsity grid. Finishing in order behind Kael, fifth, Larry Tolbert, sixth, Batchelor and Gerald Groves.

Granite City runners among the first 10 to finish were Larry Kael, fifth; Larry Tolbert, sixth; Larry Whitsett, ninth; and Skip McMillan, 10th. Alton runners were seventh and eighth. Tomorrow night's dual meet at Collinsville has been cancelled, and the Warriors of Dick Harmon will next see action on Tuesday, Oct. 3, at home against Wood River.

Carter and Stiles are emphatic about the recreational future of Crab Orchard. "We are not cutting back on development, but we are concentrating on recreational management for the person who truly appreciates and wants the pleasures and emotional profits of the outdoors, not a synthetic naturaland semi-resort."

Hollis Wins Feature On Speedway's Last Card

Glen Hollis of Granite City, who won the first modified feature race of the season at the Tri-City Speedway when he opened here this summer, closed out with another 25-lap feature win as the track completed its race schedule Tuesday night.

Hollis and Johnny Meyer of Decatur, running at the top of the driver list in the Ill-Mo circuit as far as points are concerned, will decide the circuit champion over the coming weekend in races at Godfrey, Springfield and St. Charles, Mo. They are currently separated by five points.

A trophy and bonus money will go to the eventual champion. Time trials Tuesday saw Wil Spaulding of Pontoon Beach run the fastest lap. The world champion also won the handicap for the six fastest qualifying cars. Spaulding and Hollis each won a modified heat race.

Bob Short won the amateur feature and one heat in that classification. Ferdinand Moreland took the other amateur heat race.

Bud Pursley swept all three tender tender events, including two heat races and the feature.

Request To Broadcast Football Game Denied

Granite City school board members decided Tuesday night to deny Radio Station WBBR's request to broadcast the East St. Louis-Granite City high school football game here Oct. 18. Located in East St. Louis, the station features "big beat" music.

The motion was made by Homer Huber and seconded by Herbert Blischoff, and they were joined in the 4-3 vote to deny the request by Robert Spengler and Secretary George Eubanks.

Those dissenting on the action were President Robert Spengler, Monroe Worthen and Ralph Friecker.

During a discussion of the proposed "live" broadcast, it was noted that it could effect attendance at games, and that the four sponsors are out-of-town firms that compete with local taxpaying businesses.

Revenue that might be derived from local radio broadcasts was discussed briefly, with Friecker commenting that the Granite City district might not have to share future fees from local stations, providing that the district did not have out-of-town stations nor seek a share of other schools' game broadcast profits.

When said such fees could be based on the extent of attendance loss.

Devils Edge Warden For 1st Diamond Victory, 3-2

Bill Ohlendorf's Venice high school baseball squad broke into the victory column for the first time this fall yesterday afternoon at Lee Park with a 3-2 victory over Worden.

The Red Devils parlayed the three-hit pitching of Pete Fields and timely hitting of Jim Hornmann into their first victory in four outings.

The game originally had been scheduled for Tuesday afternoon at Worden, but weekend rains made the diamond unplayable and the contest was postponed one day and transferred to Venice.

Worden took a 2-1 lead in the first, but the first of two singles by Hornmann in the second drove in what stood up to be the tying and winning runs for the Red Devils.

Fields shut out Worden for six innings after being scored on in the first, and got good support from the field. Loser Gary Lamb gave up six hits.

Venice will play Brees to-morrow at 3:30 p.m. in Lee Park.

Arrest In Theft; 4 Other Reports

Thefts from the auto of Joe Jamison, 21, Engineer Depot, who it was parked in an alley at 10 p.m. Tuesday were solved today by Madison police, who located five hubcaps, a tire jack and voltage regulator equipment. They have charged Lloyd Hemingway, 29, of 213 West Second street, West Madison, with petty larceny.

A spare tire, headlight and battery also are missing from the 1951 auto and are being sought, police said. The car had been in an alley in the 200 block of West Second street, and the theft was not immediately discovered by the owner. Hemingway is still in custody.

Madison police received a report at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday that a candy vending machine at the Madison machine, had been broken into. Investigating officers said the glass on the machine was broken and about 10 candy bars missing, but no money was reported.

The break-in was reported by a customer, Louise Barnes, who said no one was in the building when she entered and found the broken machine. Gerald Kent, proprietor, said the machine is filled from a candy vending firm.

Cash Missing
 An undetermined amount of money was taken from the Mrs. Seibold Bake Shop, Bellemore Village shopping center, Monday night. Charles Seibold reported to police Tuesday morning that when he opened about 7:15 a.m. he found Monday's receipts missing from a locked compartment. Police said there were no signs of forced entry into the shop and the key to the money compartment was in its regular place.

Thomas Baker, 1925 Joy avenue, reported to police Monday that his 1961 convertible automobile had been stolen from his driveway.

Pocahontas Victory Will Stand, Says I-C Arbitration Board

The Pocahontas Braves and Collinsville Boosters are cleared to begin their best two-out-of-three series for the Inter-City Baseball league's post season president's cup Sunday, following a ruling by the league's board of arbitration Tuesday night.

The Braves were accused of using player Larry Novak, illegally last week when they won the Blue division playoff title from McAteer Glass of East St. Louis in a protest filed with the I-C by Peck Holtzmyer, manager of the Glasmen.

Holtzmyer claimed Novak was ineligible since he had been under contract to a minor league club in the International league this summer.

Tuesday's meeting brought out that Novak, who hit two homers and drove in four runs in the upset of McAteer, is no longer under a minor league contract and was classified as a free agent at the time he was picked up by the Braves.

So, Pocahontas and John Harrison's Boosters will play in Collinsville Sunday, after all. The second game will be played Oct. 8 in Pocahontas, and the third if necessary, on a diamond approved by the opposing managers Oct. 15.

Members of the arbitration board who ruled on the protest Tuesday included William F. Morris and James D. Hackney of Granite City and Louis Miller of Edwardsville.

6 Hurt Include 4 At Crossing

Four persons were hurt about 9:15 p.m. Tuesday when their auto crashed into a railroad flat car at the August street crossing between East 23rd street and State Route 162.

Injured were Joseph Cathey, 21, of 2805 Kirkpatrick Homes, drivers, and three passengers: Robert Gerbec, 18, of Grafton, owner of the car; William Levi, 17, of East Alton and Donald Porter, 18, of Hartford.

Gerbec and Cathey were given emergency treatment at St. Elizabeth Hospital and Cathey was admitted to the hospital yesterday for further treatment of scalp cuts, abrasions to the forehead and both knees and injuries to his back and chest.

Gerbec received 25 stitches to close cuts to his forehead and knees. Cathey told police he was traveling north and he did not see a switchman at the unlighted crossing. The flatcar was being moved by a locomotive crane, according to the report.

Switchman Lloyd Gibson, 1611 Third street, Madison, said he looked both ways along the roadway before throwing a switch and did not see any cars approaching.

Woods Obscure View
 Clarence W. Adams, 36, of 1539 East 20th street, pleaded not guilty in police magistrate court Tuesday to a charge of failing to yield the right-of-way, following an accident Monday at Cleveland and 18th street. He was released on cash bond pending an Oct. 2 hearing.

Adams, who was headed north on Cleveland, told police he was unable to see an eastbound car on 18th, driven by Edward E. Lane, 37, of 2213 Nevada avenue, because of weeds growing on a fence on the southwest corner of the intersection. Hazel Adams, 31, and Adams both showed visible signs of injury, police said, and indicated that they would obtain medical treatment from their family physician.

Murder Sentence of Mercer Is Commuted

The sentence of Arlie Mercer, 35, Granite City, was commuted to 14 years Tuesday by Gov. Otto Kerner in Springfield. He has been serving a 30-year term for murder and is confined to an Illinois prison. Effect of the commutation is that Mercer will be eligible for parole next March. He pleaded guilty to the fatal rifle shooting of his former wife, Mrs. Virgie Mercer, in her home on Missouri avenue July 30, 1953.

Finds Glass Under Tire

Phil Spence, 2140 Orville street, reported to Granite City police that when he went to his car that he found a broken glass bottle had been placed under the tire.

MADISON SIDEWALK REPLACEMENT work is proceeding as part of the widening of Madison avenue. This view northward in the 400 block of Madison avenue shows workmen placing sections of the old sidewalk in a truck. The intersection has been moved to a four-way stop during work on the curbs, sidewalks and lights.

County School Program Workshops Are Reviewed

Workshop, guidance counseling and psychiatric services of the county school superintendent's office were outlined to Madison Rotarians yesterday in a talk by County Supt. Wilbur R. Trimpe.

Again this year, workshops for teachers are being arranged in the fields of mathematics, science and foreign languages. Trimpe said. In addition, civil defense instruction training is being given to enable more adults to be taught survival procedures.

Psychiatrist and counselor programs developed at the county level with state financial assistance were explained by the speaker, who also told of the relationship between the county and state offices and between the county and its 15 school districts.

Vast amount of aid from the state and federal governments distributed through his office, for special education, transportation, lunch, milk and other programs, was described. Trimpe was introduced by the day's program chairman, Madison School Supt. Wensel Brown.

The club voted to contribute $120 to the United Fund campaign. E. A. Friedman, Inducted Paul Kocera as a new member of the club.

Sale of Old Shop Machines Planned In GC

Sale of obsolete vocational shop machines was authorized Tuesday night by the Granite City school board. M. A. Wittenberg, administrative assistant in charge of vocational and adult education, reported that old welding machines at Granite City high school have been replaced because of high maintenance costs, and five other machines were replaced with similar equipment bought from federal surplus at 1% of original acquisition cost. The five are a wood jointer, wood table saw and wood lathe at Central junior high school and a metal planer and wood hand saw at GCIS.

Sale of the large Central machines as scrap will afford needed space in that school's new shop arrangement, the board was told. The metal planer also has only scrap value, but the wood hand saw is expected to have re-sale value.

Shop Electric Line
The board accepted a low bid of $353 from Rite Electric Co. on installing a line from a Central school electrical panel to machines in the woodworking shop. Don Electric Co. bid $329 and included a floor conduit, which was not required by the specifications.

With only one bid received on replacement of restroom units at Central, the board decided to return it unopened to the bidder and seek new bids. Six plumbing firms had been invited to participate.

It was voted to purchase a new stoker worn for Stallings grade school at a cost of $94 from the Independent Plumbing and Heating Co., St. Louis. The area representative of Windsor Stokers. The present equipment is worn, and puts an overload on the stoker motor as well as allowing some smoke to escape into the boiler room, School Engineer Marvin Dean reported.

Fuel Oil Purchases
Acting on fuel oil bids, the board awarded a contract for No. 2 fuel oil to the American Oil Co., St. Louis, on its low quotation of 10.25 cents a gallon. The current firm price is lower than the 1960-61 rate, also handled by American, and the service then was described as satisfactory. Last year's variable price ranged from 10.8 to 11.6 cents, with most of the purchases at 10.9 and 11.3 cents.

The board accepted a low bid of 7.75 cents from Joseph F. Reilly and Sons, Inc., of Clayton, Mo., on No. 5 fuel oil. The firm maximum price is subject to reduction if the refinery-posted price drops below its current level of 7.4 cents. Source of supply is to be a major oil refinery in the Wood River area.

Purchases of No. 5 oil were from Sinclair at a firm price of 8.07 cents in 1960-61, when service was good, the board was told.

The bid tabulations inspected Tuesday night included nine quotations, ranging up to 11.5 cents firm and from 10.7 to 11.6 cents variable on No. 2 oil, and up to 8.59 firm on No. 5 oil.

Canned Goods
Reviewing bids on canned goods, the board decided on purchases totaling $39,000, including $9,965 from Allen Foods, $7,985 from Chris Hoerr Co., $5,104 from Edway Foods, $4,092 from J. F. Conrad Co., $3,381 from Stocker Hausmann and $2,570 from Gateway Food Products Co.

The recommendation on which the action was based listed the low bid in every instance except two — carrots and sweet potatoes. The low carrot bidder could supply only a third of the needed quantity, and the size of carrot pieces would be too small for practical use. Victor C. G. Anderson, administration assistant in charge of business, said. Samples of sweet potatoes on the low bid were found to be too soft, he added.

1962 is the convertible, which has a manually operated "snap top" as standard equipment or an optional power operated top. Three color combinations are available in the convertible's all-nylon coated custom interior. Standard equipment on all new Tempests is the heater, newly designed to combine heated with unheated outside air to provide more constant heat. The line also features modified rear sus-

the school district. Zimring and Sons Tobacco and Candy Co. bid 10%. The candy machines are located at Granite City high school.

Athletic equipment purchases for basketball and wrestling teams amounted to $17,379, including $1,190 from Graham's Book Store, $541 from Economy Sporting Goods and $27 from Markwort Sporting Goods.

May Seek Basketball "Seconds"
Purchase of practice basketballs, on which bids ranged from $489 to $608, was deferred pending a study of whether "seconds" of the products are available.

Bids aggregating $705 on school letters and insignia were accepted. They totaled $945 from Graham's Book Store and $26 from the St. Louis Embroidery Works.

Authorization was given for Harry Fichte to take motion pictures of remaining home football games of the GCIS varsity team this fall at $50 a game. The school's letterman's club is to pay the film developing costs.

Word was received from M & L Products that it will be unable to deliver a wrestling mat for Prather junior high school due to closing and moving of production facilities of the Aalto Manufacturing Co. The firm was low.

Bids were opened on piano tuning, a line marker and lighting supplies and were referred to the administrative staff for analysis and recommendations. Bids approved amounted to $26,243 from the educational fund, $12,311 from the building fund, $928 from the new construction fund and $100 from the federal construction fund.

CANCER DRIVE LEADER EXPRESSES THANKS FOR SUCCESS

To the Editor:

I wish to take this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation for the understanding, cooperation and generosity in the fine articles published in the news columns of the Granite City Press-Record regarding the program of the American Cancer Society. Final tabulations this past week show we helped make the drive a huge success.

Since the announcement in April of my appointment as Granite City Chairman for the 1961 Cancer Crusade, many individuals expressed their willingness to help when I contacted them, and others called and volunteered their assistance. It is my feeling that there are many to whom this Crusade has a strong appeal, and I can think of no better way than this to say "thank you" to them and again to you.

I found great personal satisfaction in being associated with my fellow citizens for so worthy a cause, and as the campaign progressed, I realized how privileged we all are in helping to shape one of mankind's greatest future victories.

Kindest personal regards, Mrs. A. H. Seibold

COUNTY ZONING PLANNING OFFENSE BY READER

To the Editor:

County planning, zoning and land use commissions are doing a good job of planning and zoning. There are plenty of restricted areas now for those who want them; and also plenty that are not restricted; which offers freedom of choice. Industrial parks we can't demand appears.

No one can or should dictate to business and industry as to how or where they can invest their money and future. Try it. They will stay out of Madison county. There is no such thing as unplanned, haphazard and hodgepodge growth. When you spend your own money you are really planning. There are adequate laws against nuisances. Only the only man owns it.

THE VALIANT KNIGHTS OF CEDAR

The Valiant Knights of Cedar General Baptist Church will have a car wash at 9 a.m. Saturday at the church. The money raised will go to sponsor young missionaries in Colombia, South America.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hoshire, 3829 B street, have returned after spending the weekend at Hickory, Ill., visiting his father, Oscar Hoshire.

Courses, Goals Outlined To Coolidge Junior High PTA

Junior high school education was the topic as a capacity crowd filled the all-purpose room of Coolidge junior high for the first fall meeting of the PTA Monday evening.

Mrs. Valerie Evenden, president, welcomed the group and conducted the meeting. The pledge of allegiance was led by Charles H. Jungels, immediate past president, and David E. Witsell gave the PTA prayer.

Main address was given by Dr. Harold M. Kaiser, superintendent of schools, who presented his wish for continued growth and vitality of the PTA unit.

He spoke on the junior high program in the Granite City school system, and said its quality is important because junior high school age is a time of rapid changes and a time of plans for the future are being made.

Each child is given individual attention by a program broad enough to encompass all the children, and it is designed to be of vital interest to each age level and academic development so that a "tendency to stay in the groove" is prevented.

President Kennedy's physical fitness program is being carried out in the district, with all boys from the seventh to twelfth grades having 10 to 15 minutes a day of calisthenics; he said medical statistics show there is less chance of heart disease in those who practice strenuous exercise.

The public address system presented by the PTA has been installed in the gymnasium and is operating effectively, Frohardt said. He outlined the PTA's future plans for the year, stressing that they will be of educational value and will include mental health, civil defense, safety and the space age.

The members voted to sponsor an explorer scout troop, Hardscore, and announced a meeting Oct. 3 for all boys and fathers interested in the project. The members also approved compiling of a yearbook, and Mrs. Elsie Rodell was named chairman.

and reported that he had submitted his name to the group as a candidate for sheriff, and asked for support. With the Madison-Venice endorsement obtained, he said he "will be a candidate."

Venice Mayor John E. Lee verified the meeting and said the major topic discussed was the sheriff election. He told the Press-Record that Fraundorff's qualifications for the office were considered in the election to endorse his candidacy.

Other Potential Candidates

Other Venice township residents who have been under consideration for the sheriff race are Dan McGee of Venice, Madison county treasurer, who was elected to a four-year term in 1958 and cannot succeed himself in that office; and John Macraas of Madison, brother of Mayor Macraas, who was an unsuccessful sheriff candidate in 1958. John Macraas is a Madison policeman and also a staff member of a county office.

Active in politics for many years, Fraundorff is a former state trooper and former assistant supervisor of Nameoki township. His residence in Madison is in a section of Nameoki township.

A member of the Madison police force for more than 20 years, he has been chief for most of that time. He served overseas with the armed forces in World War II.

In recent years, the Madison department has been commended by county authorities for the completeness of evidence and thoroughness of investigations of robberies and other crimes.

Sheriff George Muscat cannot succeed himself in the position.

Division Goals Set For Oct. 17 United Fund Campaign

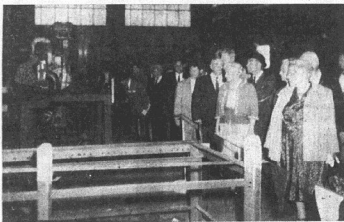

Division quotas for the Tri-Cities Area 1962 United Fund drive were announced yesterday at a special meeting of division chairmen with General Campaign Chairman Sidney L. Aubrey at the YMCA.

Attending the meeting were Ernest A. Karandjeff, special gifts and professional division chairman; A. P. Steinhauer, industry division co-chairman; Paul Kelley, public employees division co-chairman; H. D. Karandjeff, organizations division co-chairman; Community Services Representative E. F. Reiske; Carl Bacenas, publicity chairman; and John Solenberger, UF executive director.

Special gifts and professional — $8000; and Organizations — $1000.

Aubrey indicated that the division quotas were increased proportionately to what was provided a year ago. He pointed out that, for the most part, it just involved rounding off last year's totals upward. The total of this year's quotas is $298,463 which is $2037 over this year's minimum campaign goal of $296,426. He said that the $2037 balance was made on purpose to provide a cushion for the unexpected.

LACLEDE STEEL OPEN HOUSE tours for customers and for employees' families attracted several thousand persons to the Madison plant Monday and Tuesday. Visitors are shown watching part of the production line in operation.

In Operation 50 Years

Several Thousand Visitors
Tour Laclede Steel Co. Here

Golden anniversary of founding of the Laclede Steel Co. was observed this week with an open house at its original location, the Madison plant. Four hundred customers and guests toured the mill Monday afternoon, and a families of employees visited Tuesday, with several thousand participating.

The throngs who walked through the Madison facility heard it described as "a typical finishing mill and fabricating plant for steel employed in reinforced concrete and steel joist construction."

Although typical in this sense, the plant has unique qualities, it was pointed out. Along with being a pioneer Quad-City firm and a local employer for 50 years, the Madison plant—with three lines operating around the clock—can produce more steel joists than any other plant in the world. Bars 40 feet long can be accommodated, and the 40-foot-wide reheating furnace is one of the few in the industry to handle full-length rails.

Visitors were given identifying lapel cards and souvenirs upon arriving at the plant, where a special parking area had been created on the south side. They included O. F. Renner, 80-year-old St. Louisian who formerly was superintendent of the Madison plant.

View Production

The route to be followed was marked, and guides and signs aided the guests in understanding the equipment and operations they viewed. Production continued without a halt during the tour.

Combination pocketknives and keychain holders, marked "Laclede Steel Co. 1911-1961," were given out along with explanatory pamphlets. Transported by bus back to the parking area, the visitors passed through a tent where refreshments were served and products were displayed.

Engine in Use Since 1911

The tour began at the southwest gate and proceeded to the billet yard, reheating furnace, bar finishing mills, and a 2700-horsepower Corliss engine, which has been in service since 1911, rolling almost 4,000,000 tons of Laclede steel.

Rope drives from the engine's flywheel power three separate sets of mills.

Next on the walk were hot beds, machine and mill maintenance shops, cutting of deformations in finishing roll passes, a physical test laboratory, steel joist department, angle straighteners, steel joist assembly tables, resistance welders, bearing and welders, steel joist inspection, continuous web bender, steel joist painting, reinforcing bar fabrication, circle bending, double benders, reinforcing steel shipping, special joist painting, bridging, manufacture, joist components, spiral reinforcements, millwright shops, the office building and personnel building.

Thomas Akin First President

Founded by Thomas R. Akin, who was its president, treasurer and director until his death Aug. 8, 1945, Laclede is headed by W. M. Akin, G. R. Clarke is general superintendent of the Madison and Alton plants, and Leonard Will is Madison superintendent.

Obtaining its raw material from the company's basic steel plant at Alton, the Madison works produces nearly 200,000 tons of reinforcing and steel joists annually. There are 360 employees in Madison county.

The products are distributed to Laclede warehouses in Beaumont and Dallas, Tex., Memphis, Tenn., New Orleans, La., and Tampa, Fla., as well as to many independent fabricators and contractors throughout the midwest. Laclede has 14 sales offices in 10 states.

Later Plant Acquisitions

Laclede in 1915 bought the Alton Steel Co., consisting of 44 acres, two open hearth furnaces, a blooming mill, billet mill, ten-inch mill and eight-inch mill.

Another purchase the following year involved a forge shop on the Valley plant in East St. Louis, which produced railroad axle castings from steel made at Alton. It was sold in 1925, with proceeds invested in a ten-inch four-high continuous strip mill, one of the first of its kind in the United States.

A 56-ton open hearth was added in 1918, a Chicago sales office in 1923, and a 100-ton open hearth — Laclede's fourth — open hearth furnace — in 1929. Meanwhile, the Southern States Steel Corp. of Dallas, Tex., reinforcing bar fabricating shop, was bought in 1927 as Laclede's first warehouse fabricating plant.

In 1930, manufacture of steel joists began in Madison and production of butt weld pipe and conduit was started in a plant adjacent to the Alton works. Acquisitions included first wire and wire mesh equipment in 1933, a rod mill finishing train for ten-inch mill in 1935, and a gas tube welder for manufacture of thin wall tubing in 1940.

War-time Additions

The blooming mill acquired with the Alton plant purchase was replaced during World War II with a modern 38-inch blooming mill, and two 110-inch cupolas were installed adjacent to the open hearth department to produce hot metal for the furnaces from coke, limestone and scrap charge.

A new warehouse fabricating plant was built at Dallas in 1947 to replace the original, and a similar plant was constructed at Beaumont in 1949. At that time the rod mill finishing train was removed from the ten-inch mill and incorporated in a two-strand, high-speed rod mill.

Laclede entered the manufacture of thin-wall electric weld tubing with purchase in 1947 and 1948 of six electric tube welding machines, augmenting production from a gas tube machine.

Barge Ship, Water Terminal

Third and fourth warehouse fabricating plants were opened in New Orleans in 1951 and Memphis in 1954. The New Orleans works including the first barge ship served by an overhead crane. A rail-water terminal on the river above the Alton lock and dam was bought during this period, and the steam engine driving the blooming mill was replaced in 1953 with a 5000-horsepower motor.

A high-speed continuous weld pipe mill replaced the original butt weld mill in 1957, a warehouse fabricating plant with barge facilities was opened in Tampa in 1958, and the ten-inch mill last modernized in 1957 was revamped and returned to service last December.

Annual ingot capacity has increased from 78,400 net tons in 1915 to 212,000 in 1920, 168,000 in 1925, 252,000 in 1930, 263,612 in 1935, 283,000 in 1940, 326,025 in 1945, 397,945 in 1950, 500,000 in 1955 and 620,000 at the end of 1960.

Elroy (Crazylegs) Hirsch caught 17 touchdown passes for the Los Angeles Rams in 1951, a National football League record.

Boy, 7, Burned While Playing in Old Auto

Michael Huber, seven, of 1104 Douglas street, Venice, suffered burns to the face, hands and arms Tuesday night while he was playing in an abandoned car in front of his home, police were informed yesterday afternoon by his step-mother, Mrs. Hattie Smith. Manner in which the burns were received has not yet been determined.

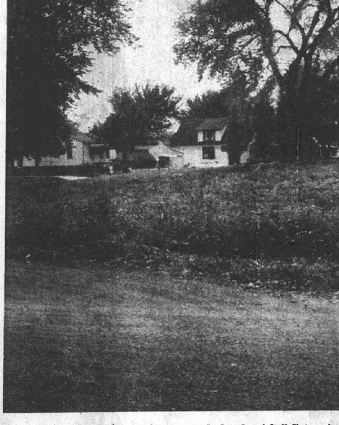

Venice police traced the car to a West Madison resident and Bert Blodgett, Homer Huber and Secretary George Eubanks. Blodgett contended that the meeting might set a precedent for joint meetings with business agents, while Stidham said it could be helpful in informing the agents of the full scope of the district's contract offer.

It was agreed that negotiations with other unions representing school maintenance employees will be handled separately and delayed until after an agreement with the custodians. Each contract differs, though wage increases usually are similar.

Dr. Kaiser reported to the board Tuesday night that two Nameoki grade school classes, kindergarten and third grade, have been moved to the Nameoki Presbyterian Church due to overcrowding at the school.

Possibility of school lunch tickets was discussed briefly, and study of advantages and disadvantages is to be made by the administrative staff. Descriptions of school child defense shelters that are available for purchase were inspected by board members.

BEFORE — AND AFTER weed cutting at old cemetery in East Granite City off Charles street. The city council authorized the weeds to be cut because of numerous complaints from nearby residents. The weeds, up to 11 feet high, have been cut, and Mayor Davis said he is conferring with the city attorney to determine if dead trees and debris can be removed. He added that the city has no intention of disturbing the graves, but it is hoped that through an urban redevelopment program the cemetery can be relocated.

Local Gasoline Price
War Nears Its End

A gasoline price war that started in the Quad-Cities a week ago apparently is nearing its end today. By noon, some stations were still selling major gas brands for 28.9 cents per gallon of super and 24.9 cents per gallon for regular, while other major brands had already jumped to 34.9 and 30.9 cents per gallon.

The war started two weeks ago in St. Louis and spread across the river to Illinois communities. The cut-rate stations were two cents per gallon cheaper on both super and regular during the price war. "It's about as low as it has ever been," exclaimed an area service station owner.

Continue Talks
On Contract For School Custodians

The 1961-62 contract for Granite City school custodians remains unsigned following several discussions this week. Latest was a meeting yesterday afternoon between Supt. Harold M. Kaiser and Business Agent C. H. Moeller, with business agents of the painter, carpenter and chauffeur unions attending as advisors to Moeller.

Moeller met with agents of other craft unions Monday and advised Dr. Kaiser Tuesday that the fringe benefits offered are acceptable but that hourly wage boosts of five cents this year and six cents in 1962-63 are unacceptable. He suggested a meeting with the school board.

The board voted 4-3 Tuesday night to reaffirm the five-cent offer to custodians in Building Service Employees Local 98 and also to authorize the superintendent to meet with the group of agents if the other agents remained in an advisory capacity.

The motion by Ralph Flicker and second by George Stidham was supported by Monroe Worthing and President Robert Spengler. Disenting were Herbert Blodgett, Homer Huber and Secretary George Eubanks. Blodgett contended that the meeting might set a precedent for joint meetings with business agents, while Stidham said it could be helpful in informing the agents of the full scope of the district's contract offer.

No Agreement Yet In Water Co. Strike

No agreement was reached in a meeting last night between representatives of the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. and 38 members of the International Office Employees Union Local 150 who are on strike against the firm.

Federal Mediator Bernard O'Keefe said it would be difficult to say whether any progress was made in last night's session, and said no definite time has been set for new negotiations. Their contract expired last Aug. 21.

"We'll call a meeting at the first time it seems likely we can accomplish something," he said. O'Keefe, representing the U.S. Mediation and Conciliation Service in St. Louis, and Fern Rauch, state mediator, met with representatives of both sides for

Concealed Knife Charge

Arrested at 9:55 p.m. Wednesday at the Maytag Laundrette, Market and State streets, Everett Vaughn, 26, of 509 West Second street, West Madison, is being held by Venice police on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon, a broad knife. A companion also is in custody for questioning.

3½ hours last night in St. Louis in an effort to reach new contract agreements to end the strike, which began last Friday. Wages are reported to be the major issue, with the union seeking an 18-month contract with a 10-cent hourly raise the first year and an additional 5 cents for the last six months. The company reportedly has offered a 10-cent increase for the entire 18-month period. The workers' average hourly wage now is $2.28.

Fall-Winter Recreation Program At 6 Schools

Six school buildings are to be included in the Granite City park district's fall and winter recreation program, it was reported at Tuesday night's Granite City school board meeting.

Approval for use of the schools was given by the board, contingent on a clarification of whether fees are to be charged to the public for any of the programs. In the event there are fees, any extra costs encountered by the school district are to be studied for possible discussion with the park district.

The fall-winter plans include the following:

Coolidge junior high school—men's basketball, Monday and Tuesday evenings; square dancing, Friday evenings; and boys' basketball, Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Prather junior high—men's basketball, Monday and Tuesday evenings; square dancing, Tuesday evenings; and boys' basketball, Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Logan grade school—square dancing, third Tuesdays and every Thursday except the third Thursdays.

Niedringhaus school—square dancing, Thursday evenings. Wilson school—square dancing, adult classes, second and fourth Thursdays; square dancing, boys and girls, Friday evenings.

Nameoki school—boys' basketball, Saturdays from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.; square dancing, Thursday evenings.

The square dancing program will start the week of Oct. 16, and the basketball program will start the week of Nov. 27, Park Recreation Director Harold E. Brown said in a letter to School Supt. Harold M. Kaiser.

Increase In Custodial Service At 5 Schools

Custodial service at five school buildings will be increased through the creation of two new custodial positions by the Granite City school board Tuesday night.

One position will involve four hours' work daily at Stallings grade school and a like number of hours at Marshall grade school.

Stallings currently has a custodian who works eight hours daily and another who works three days a week at Stallings and the weekend at Granite City high school. Marshall at present has two full-time custodians but needs additional help, Supt. Harold M. Kaiser explained.

The custodian who formerly worked three eight-hour shifts at Stallings and the weekend at GCIS will be reassigned to three days at Coolidge junior high school and the GCIS weekend schedule. Dr. Kaiser cited increased enrollment and student activities at Coolidge.

The second new custodial position will consist of three and a half hours each day at Wilson grade school and four and a half hours daily at Maryville grade school.

Construction completed this fall has added six classrooms at Maryville and four classrooms at Wilson.

In other action, the school board employed three teachers, including Mrs. Charlotte M. Lieman, 2406 Waterman avenue, who holds a bachelor degree from the University of Illinois. She will teach Spanish at the Coolidge and Central junior highs.

Donald F. Dingworth, Okaville, Ill., who has a 1960 bachelor degree from Murray State College, will teach physical education at Prohart grade school, and Albert B. Hancock, Morton, Ill., who has a Southern Illinois University bachelor degree, will teach developmental reading and book classes (English and social studies) at Central.

The board authorized attendance by Russell D. Johnson, assistant superintendent in charge of junior and senior high school instruction, and Lawrence C. McCauley, high school principal, at a meeting of the Illinois Secondary Principals Association Oct. 2 and 4 at the University of Illinois.

Feed Wheat Exemption Program Continues in '62

Edwin C. Rethmeier, chairman of the Madison county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee reminded Madison county farmers that the feed wheat exemption program is still in effect for the 1962 crop year. Legislation enacted some time ago permits farmers to grow up to 30 acres of wheat without penalty, provided all of it is used for feed, seed or human consumption on the farm where it is produced. None of the wheat can be sold, bartered, or exchanged. Any livestock or poultry fed must be owned by the producer, and it will not be permissible to remove any wheat to another farm for any purpose.

Any producer interested in growing up to 30 acres of wheat for 1962 should file an application prior to seeding time. Applications are available in the county ASCS office at Edwardsville. Rethmeier said. An application may be cancelled at any time, but in this event marketing quota program provisions will apply to any wheat produced on the farm.

All-New Chevy II To Be Displayed Here Tomorrow

Mathew's Chevrolet Co., 1511 Nidringhaus avenue, will open its showroom doors tomorrow at 9 a. m. with the unveiling of the all-new car for 1962—the Chevy II. The new Corvairs and standard Chevrolets will also be on display from 9 a. m. till 9 p. m.

"The Chevy II is larger than the Corvair but smaller than Chevrolet's standard cars," explained Milton Mathew, president of Mathew's Chevrolet. "It will feature nine models, including station wagons, a hard-top sport coupe and a convertible. The new models will represent the most complete line of smaller-than-standard cars introduced in recent years."

Although the Chevy II design is basically conventional, it offers new front-mounted four-cylinder engines. Both three-speed manual and automatic transmissions will be available. The front end is distinguished by single headlights and a lattice-type grille.

With the addition of the Chevy II line, Chevrolet's 1962 passenger car lineup is up to 32 models—highest in its history—available in the Corvair, Corvair, Chevy II and standard Chevrolet lines.

The nine Chevy II models are divided into three series. The standard, called the 100, will include two and four-door sedans and a two-seat station wagon. The deluxe series, called the 300, besides offering a two-and four-door sedan, will have a three-seat station wagon. Top series of the line, the Nova 400, will contain a two-seat station wagon, plus a two-door sport coupe and convertible.

The Chevy II models are 183 inches long and have a 110-inch wheelbase. They are 70.8 inches wide and 55 inches high. Featuring tapered plate springs, exclusive to the U. S. auto industry, the Chevy II eliminates years of research for rear axle cushioning. A full line of comfort and safety options will be available, including power steering, power brakes, air conditioning and the Positraction rear axle. The Chevy II will have 14 exterior colors with color-keyed interiors.

New V8 Engine
Under the hood of the 1962 Corvair will be a brand new 327 cubic inch V8 engine. Serving as the basis for all power teams this new engine, coupled with optional fuel injection, is rated at 360 horsepower. In addition to the standard 250 horsepower version with a 4-barrel carburetor and hydraulic valve lifters, a 300 horsepower engine with a single large 4-barrel carburetor and special camshaft are available in the optional equipment lineup.

From a styling standpoint, the standard Chevrolet for 1962 reflects the greatest change with new sheet metal, grille work, bumpers and ornamentation, as well as new exterior colors and restyled interiors.

Mathew's Chevrolet Co., 1511 Nidringhaus avenue, will display all the new models tomorrow. Refreshments will be served throughout the day-long showing.

ORCHID LOUNGE — PIZZAS

WIDE RANGE of choices Mathew's Chevrolet Co., 1511 Nidringhaus avenue, will offer for 1962 is hinted here in this three-car photograph. Pictured to compare overall length are (top to bottom) the 108-inch Corvair 4-Door Sedan; the 183-inch Chevy II 4-Door Sedan, and the Impala Sport Sedan which measures 209.6 inches. All three can be seen here tomorrow.

Oct. 15 program: "The Effectiveness of Divine Aid"

"The Bible Unlocked"; "Salvation in the Twentieth Century" and other interesting topics will be discussed later.

FRIDAY A New World of Worth from Chevrolet for '62!

'62 Impala Sport Coupe—with a roof line that looks like a convertible's

'62 CHEVROLET Rich new styling with Jet-smooth ride!

Here's everything a car fancier could want. Fresh-minted style that comes to a climax in the sportiest sport coupe you've seen yet. A road-gentling Jet-smooth ride. A new choice of V8 skeddadle. Rich Body by Fisher interiors. Beauty that's specially built to stay beautiful. Here in '62 is more than ever to please you from the make that pleases most people.

If you've wondered what owning an expensive car is like, here's where you find out—without the expense. Check it over from its clean-thrusting prow to its rakish rear deck. Look inside the deep-well trunk. Step through one of those wide-opening doors and plump down on a seat the size of a sofa. Then—head for the open highway. That sittin'-on-station feeling you get is Chevrolet's famous Jet-smooth ride at work—with a pliant Pull Coil spring cushioning at each wheel. The standard six and V8 are triggered to do special things on regular gas, and for real hair-trigger reflexes you have a choice of four optional-at-extra-cost V8's with output all the way up to 409 hp. ■ Hard-working helpers (like the new steel front fender underskirts that guard against corrosion) give this '62 its built-for-keeps beauty. Even the heater and defroster come as standard equipment this year. This is the kind of car that will make you feel luxurious all over, and your Chevrolet dealer will be only too happy to show you how easy it is to have one of your own.

Corvair Monza Club Coupe

THE '62 CORVAIR MONZA

The car that puts sport in the driver's seat!

Step right up and meet the latest version of the car that's proved its mettle in the fiercest competition going — '62 Corvair. Bigger new brakes team up with Corvair's renowned rear-engine traction for just about the surest footed going on the road. A new Monza Station Wagon makes its debut. And all models sport freshly tailored upholstery inside matched by sassy new styling accents outside.

This jim-dandy's got the stuff that drivers dote on. ■ Backstage you have a standard aluminum air-cooled engine that turns up 80 hp. (or if you like more razzamattaz, one that uncoils 102 hp.). You can pick from a 3-speed Synchro-Mesh transmission, a 4-speeder or Corvair Powerglide. ■ Sure enough, there's independent suspension on all four wheels to keep the ride as amiable as ever. Inside, you'll find a heater and defroster, cigarette lighter, dual sunshades, front-door armrests and automatic clock as standard equipment on the 600 Coupe, 700 Coupe and Sedan, Monza Coupe and Sedan, Monza and 700 Station Wagons. ■ There are lots of reasons for liking what's new—and tried and true—in the '62 Corvair. And your dealer's eager to tick 'em off for you.

*Optional at extra cost.

Chevy II 300 2-Door Sedan—sensitivity at its Sunday best

HERE'S THE NEW CHEVY II Modern basic transportation in a totally new line of cars

Here are all solid, time-tested virtues you know you can count on from all the Chevrolet family—plus some surprises you've never seen on any car before. A full line of saucy new-size models, each built a new way for easier service and maintenance. Thrifty? Choice of a frugal 4 or spunky 6-cylinder engine (in most models). Roomy? Sedans seat six solid citizens, bag and baggage. Price? A real pleasant surprise!

This plucky new Chevy II comes about as close as a car can to perpetual motion. Beneath that fetching, fresh-shaped bonnet you'll find the kind of long-lived dependability that has always been Chevrolet's special stock-in-trade. ■ All nine models (station wagons, a hardtop, even a convertible will soon be available in the lineup) are designed to save you money and service. Major front-end sections, including fenders, bolt on for easy replacement in case of damage. More savings: The heater and defroster are yours as standard equipment. Tough—but ever-so-gentle—Mono-Plate rear springs flex as a single unit, eliminating the friction of old-fashioned multi-leaf springs. ■ And, maneuverable and sensibly sized as this Chevy II is, it gives you the kind of passenger and packing room that'll make many a "big" car wonder how it's done.

See the '62 Chevrolets, the new Chevy II's and '62 Corvairs at your local authorized Chevrolet dealer's

Toburen, Lichter Head UF Commercial Division

The Tri-Cities Area United Fund drive gets under way Tuesday, Oct. 17, but already volunteer workers are planning how to reach this year's goal of $298,463 in record-breaking fashion.

In order to conduct a successful campaign, General Chairman Sidney L. Aubrey and Vice Chairman John McBride have called upon civic leaders in the community to head various divisions of the drive.

One such division is the commercial division, which has Robert Toburen as its head with Gene Lichter as vice chairman. The division is to secure company, executive and employees' subscriptions from business and commercial firms in the area.

Toburen, who served as a captain in the business division a year ago and has been a campaign worker for several years, is a vice-president at the First Granite City National Bank. Toburen's assistant, Lichter, is manager of the F.W. Woolworth Co. Store and is serving in this campaign position for the second year. Lichter, who also is serving his second year on the UF board of directors, is active in numerous promotion projects of the Associated Retailers.

Aiding Toburen and Lichter are five major section leaders. The five sections are classified as financial institutions, insurance and real estate offices, retail stores, national firms, and personal service stores and shops, but each major and his volunteer workers will actually cover a cross-section of the five sections.

The five commercial division majors are: John Sedlack, Granite City and Madison funeral director; Associated Retailers President Maurice Rich, owner of Rich's Ladies Apparel Shop; Allen L. Jesse, vice-president of the installment loan department of the Granite City Trust & Savings Bank; Homer Huber, partner in the Feder & Huber Furniture Co., 1805 State street; and Don Z. Contractor Licensing, Building Code Studied

Study of contractor licensing and building code ordinances of other municipalities was started Monday night by members of the Granite City council's inspection committee and a committee of local contractors to pave the way for presentation of such measures in Granite City.

At least a dozen building codes have been made available to the committee for study, and the contractor licensing ordinance, supported by local contractors, is designed to prevent transient contractors from bilking local residents, especially those planning home improvement projects.

No date has been set for the committee to submit its recommendations to the council.

NEW LOOK FOR DART. Dodge's popular-priced model features a 116-inch wheelbase, and is available in three series. Shown above is the Dart "440" four-door hardtop, among new Dodge models which went on display today at Farrington Motors, Inc., 1911 Madison avenue.

1962 Dodge Dart Series Redesigned; 23 Models

A redesigned 1962 Dart series with high-lift camshaft, a four-barrel carburetor and dual exhausts as standard equipment. The engine is rated at 305 horsepower.

The "500" presents an unusual appearance from the front, with the high beam headlights set into the grille and the low beam lights housed in the front fenders. The "Gran Turismo" series is in addition to the compact Lancer line for 1962, and is available in two-door hardtop style with bucket seats.

Six other models in the Lancer line will be available with either of two engines, an inclined six-cylinder of 101 horsepower or a 145 horsepower six which has a die-cast aluminum cylinder block. The manufacturers claim "performance comparable to some V-8's" with the latter engine.

All Lancer models are equipped with factory-installed front seat belt anchorages which make it easy for the owner to install his own safety belts.

All Dodge cars for 1962 are equipped with factory-sealed chassis lubrication systems, good for 32,000 miles before a lubrication check is necessary, and self-adjusting brakes.

1962 Truck Line
Dodge trucks for 1962 vary in size from a new, half-ton delivery unit to 2½-ton heavy tractors. There are 141 basic models, including conventional cab, low forward cab, forward control chassis, four-wheel drive, school bus chassis and tandem units.

Eleven gasoline engines, ranging from 101 to 228 horsepower, are offered. Seven Cummins diesel engines will be available in the 1962 line, ranging in horsepower from 160 to 250.

GC May Not Participate In Mass Transportation Survey

Granite City's participation appears unlikely in a $100,000 survey proposed by the Missouri-Illinois Bi-State Development Agency to study feasibility of a two-state mass transportation system. The agency has offered to consider the purchase of 15 separate bus firms in the two-state area to operate a consolidated system, provided the communities involved finance the feasibility survey.

Granite City's share of the survey cost has been set at $3000, and Mayor Davis said he hoped the amount would be advanced by Community Coach Co., but that a conference Monday night with George W. Stearns, president of the local bus firm, and David John, secretary, failed to exact a commitment.

"This might be taken up at the next council session, but it is unlikely the $5000 will be allocated because of the city's present financial condition," the mayor said. He was referring to the deficit expected at the end of the present fiscal year because of costly sewer break repair bills. The bus survey cost is not in the city's current budget.

Stearns, who last week returned from a trip to Europe, told the Press-Record following Monday night's conference that Community Coach Co. would be unable to advance the money to the city. "We're borrowing money now," he added.

"Allocation Too High"

The bus firm president said that in studying records of bus firm incomes he believed the $5000 amount allocated to Granite City as its share of the survey cost was excessive.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

No Accidents In Area During Tuesday's Fog

Tuesday morning's rush hour traffic, slowed far below speed limits, due to dense fog, proved cautious as no pileups were reported during the heavy travel hours by police of the area.

The heavy curtain of fog cleared after most motorists had arrived at their work or school destinations. Police officers stationed on Nameoki road at the senior high school and Coolidge junior high said all drivers proceeded with caution.

Most difficulty occurred in new subdivisions with curvilinear streets where turns into private driveways were made by motorists following the edge of the pavements.

50-Year-Old Laclede Plant A World Leader In Steel Joists

Largest-capacity steel joist production center in the world... a civic servant always ready to respond to community needs... employer of Quad-City residents for the past 50 years. Laclede Steel Co. is many things to many people, but it has been a dependable friend and neighbor to this community ever since June 3, 1911, when the first 20-acre tract was purchased in Madison and preparations were started for the rolling of reinforcing bars.

Growing steadily, the firm now has annual input capacity of 620,000 tons at its plants and has a work force of 3600 in Madison county, with its payroll alone amounting to $180,000,000 in the county during the past decade. State and local taxes here top $1,700,000 yearly, and the firm has contributed $300,000 to charitable, educational and hospital programs within Madison county.

Originating in Madison, Laclede has expanded as far as Texas and Florida and is devoting most of its attention to products vital to the construction industry, highway building and industrial purposes. With population, business, roadway and construction prospects extremely bright for the 1960s, 1970s and beyond, the next 50 years should be even more productive than the first half-century.

Who remembers when people thought it necessary to study phases of the moon before undertaking any important enterprise?

Centralized Tax Collection Proposal Worthy Of Study

A current proposal for greater governmental economy is not likely to win much favor from townships and cities, but it might have enough merit to justify a study of the potential result. The plan involves transfer of tax collecting duties to the county.

Advantages would be greater income for the hard-pressed county—probably a quarter-million dollars a year in collection fees—and savings in bill preparation costs through centralization and mechanization. It is believed that county files are now sufficiently complete to enable most of the taxing process to be mechanized.

A drawback is that the city-townships of Granite City and Alton and the other townships would lose some of their duties and fees; in addition, the convenience of local collection points might not be easy to duplicate. The prospect that a referendum would be required for the change makes early consideration and approval unlikely, but the general goal of modern, efficient, economical government must be kept in view.

This is the time of the year when the busiest men find time to attend a game of football.

Group Program Can Aid Senior Citizens In Remaining Active

We wish the YMCA well in its efforts to attract members and leaders for a senior citizen program. Longer life and earlier retirement are causing a sharp increase in this segment of the population, and it is to the best interest of themselves and the community that they remain active.

Art, hobbies, reading, physical training, ceramics, recreation, information sessions, singing, motion pictures, sightseeing and dramatics are among the programs being discussed, and the range of both organized and individual pursuits can be widened as participation grows.

Each day is a gift to be treasured, and who is to say at what age life can be most enjoyable or meaningful to a person and to society? Judging by the varied activities under consideration, the golden years could be truly that for many local residents, and the YMCA is a logical center or coordinator for such groups.

Response At Springfield To County Tax Dilemma

Gov. Kerner, who has felt constrained to deny to this area needed laws on drainage and lake park development, partially has made up for the vetoes by saying this week that he probably will include county tax rate help in his call for a special legislative session Oct. 10. Of course, the drainage and park needs remain unmet.

The tax rate adjustment that is proposed would aid eight counties, including Madison county, by allowing them to continue levying a general rate at the same level as during the past decade. The issue is worthy of favorable consideration by both the legislators and governor.

Jobs Help Young People Avoid Delinquency Pitfall

Quad-Cityans do not have the "blackboard jungles" and slum-bred teenage gangs that plague some large cities, and part of the reason is that a high percentage of local youngsters obtain employment, learning early to appreciate the value of money and the joy of work.

In this connection, it is interesting to note Labor Secretary Goldberg's testimony before a Congressional subcommittee that unemployed and out-of-school young people constitute "social dynamite"—potentially the most dangerous social condition in America today.

The official concedes that federal action in this field is limited, for delinquency primarily is a local problem, but job opportunities and adequate vocational counseling are important. Rather than something to be avoided as long as possible, gainful employment—part-time or full-time—can be deeply satisfying and one of the major reasons why life is worthwhile. The sooner youngsters learn this, the better citizens they are likely to be.

Dr. Grzesk Recuperating From June 25 Surgery

Dr. Leo L. Grzesk, local physician who underwent back surgery June 25 at Barnes Hospital, is expecting to return to his office in the Danier building within a month or six weeks, it was learned today.

Dr. Grzesk was hospitalized through Aug. 5 and is recovering from the lameness at his home, 2512 Benton street.

Your Governor Reports by OTTO KERNER

Unemployment is more than a cold statistic reporting from eight to 23% of the work force in 33 southern Illinois counties.

It means that thousands of men are wanting work, men out searching for jobs and finding that no jobs exist for them. It means that in some areas, one of every three wage earners is out of work. It means that children are hungry, often cold, and as a consequence, in ill health. It is intolerable that one of the wealthiest states of this nation would permit such conditions to exist.

The Illinois General Assembly recognized this critical condition and in the last session approved legislation designed to bolster the economy and create employment.

In addition to the work of the Board of Economic Development, described in previous reports, state and federal projects over the period of the next two years will create thousands of jobs. Among these projects are two new mental institutions, one at Harrisburg and one at Centralia, a new prison near Vienna, acceleration of construction on Interstate Route 57, and continued work on other state highways.

In addition to the Road & Bridge project I have previously described, Illinois hopes to expedite the Kaskaskia River Canal. Some economic authorities estimate the Kaskaskia project will bring an estimated $1 billion in new industry to Southern Illinois. This navigation channel promises to cure the ills of the coal mining industry and attract many new large industries to the area.

Another agency expected to improve Illinois economy is the Illinois Industrial Development Authority, created by the General Assembly this year. This is a state corporation that can make loans to communities for public works, costs of building plants and securing factory sites. To secure loans through the authority a project must first receive approval from the Board of Economic Development. This authority was granted the sum of $500,000 by the legislature to be used for such loans.

It should be clearly understood that while the Board of Economic Development and the Illinois Industrial Authority were established by the legislature to expedite a means of bringing economic help to one section of our state, these state agencies will not confine their activities to Southern Illinois. Any community of the state, no matter its geographical location, is entitled to these services and should seek help on any planned project.

We cannot stand idly by and allow any part of our greatest resource—human beings—to be so cruelly wasted. That is why the State of Illinois is prepared to help communities help themselves in bolstering their economy.

Winless Trojans Host Comanches In Midwestern Conference Opener

After losing a heart-breaker to Granite City last week and having had to settle for a tie with Edwardsville the week before, Madison's Trojans will entertain the Cahokia Comanches tomorrow at 8 p. m. in the Midwestern Conference opener for both schools.

Sporting a 1-1 mark for the season, Coach John Dal Santo's Comanches trounced Greenville last week 24-0, after losing the campaign opener to Belleville Cathedral the week before, 35-19.

Coach Glen Pickering's Madison crew battled Dal Santo's charges to a 6-6 deadlock a year ago, Cahokia went on in conference circles to post a 3-1 record which was good for third place. Madison finished fourth with a 2-2-1 loop mark.

Overall last year, the Comanches were 4-3-1 and Madison was 2-5-1.

Sub Weighs 280 This year's Cahokia uprising is led by Halfback Tytus Winters, the team's leading ground-gainer and scorer. Backed up by his older brother, Dave, at the other halfback slot, the Winters provide a difficult task for Madison's defense.

Quarterback Dave Miller, a capable passer, keeps the defense on its toes and gives brothers Tytus and Dave moving room. A substitute junior center, Eugene Manwarren, tips the scales at 280 pounds and provides many a hole for Comanche ball carriers.

Boasting nine returning lettermen, Cahokia's forward wall is led by Co-captains Jerry Rachell and Jim Jackson, both guards. Jackson, a defensive standout, leads the squad in tackles. A third co-captain, David Levin, spells the Winters boys in the backfield. Gone from last year's squad are two second-team all-conference performers, Fullback Bob Browning and Bill Dill, an end.

Same Lineup In shooting for his first win of the season, Pickering will go with the same lineup that faced Granite City's Warriors in the Shrine game.

George Russell and Don Freeman will run at ends; George Stuart and Sam Dymas will man the tackle positions; Wally Wiemer and Norman Stawar get the nod for guard assignments; and Ervin Mueller will play center.

In the backfield, Ed Petty, the team's leading scorer, will team with All-Conference Ken Griggs at the halfback posts; Terry Andrews will run from the fullback slot; and Mick Graville will direct Trojan action from the quarterback position.

In other conference games, Roxana plays at Bethalto and Highland hosts Dupu. Dupu and Roxana are defending conference co-champions.

Defense-Minded Cooper, Galloping Ed Petty Standouts For Trojans

Defensive end Walt Cooper, who gained 15 yards on offense, and Ed Petty, who scored two touchdowns, have been named by Madison Coach Glen "Pick" Pickering as linemen and back of the week, respectively. For their play against Granite City Friday night in the annual Shrine game.

Despite the 21-13 loss, Petty rolled up 120 yards in 12 carries for a nifty 10 yards-per-carry average. Petty scored Madison's only two TDs on a 30-yard pass play from Quarterback Mick Graville and a 62-yard run on a slant-tackle-trap play. In addition to his two scoring plays, he broke loose on a 33-yard gallop on another occasion.

Cooper, a sure-starter as a defensive end and a substitute of fence halfback for the Trojans, excelled at both Friday night. Gaining 19 yards in eight attempts, he spelled both Petty and Ken Griggs in the second half of a game that was played in ideal spectator football weather, but not player temperatures, as the humidity tested conditioning.

Released on $27 cash bail at 10 p. m. Monday was Gary Kelley, 20, of 2130 Grand Avenue, who was charged with speeding in the 2400 block of Delmar avenue and operating a motor vehicle without a driver's license.

On three different occasions, Cooper rushed the Granite City punter, just missing the piggins in attempts to block the kicks. It was his alert play that kept Warrior ball carriers from running the ends. Not once during the entire contest did the opponents pick up ground around his side.

A 165-pound junior, Cooper showed why he lettered as a sophomore last year on defense. Petty, a 170-senior letterman, kept his average intact as he scored 12 points for the second straight week.

PREP PIGSKIN PICKS

Claude, the electronic computer, after suffering through an opening weekend of upsets on the area high school football scene, recovered nicely this past week to predict the winners in 10 of 13 games considered.

Maybe it was because he had recovered from opening game jitters ... or was able to make better use of additional information and experience gained in any case, the Press-Record's electronic brain has upped his pick percentage to a snazzy 720 with 18 of 25 winners selected in two weeks.

Claude gave extra attention to this weekend's menu, since it marks the opening games in the two local conferences, and came up with the following predictions:

Collinsville 21, Granite City 7

Cahokia 26, Madison 20

Wood River 14, Edwardsville 7

Warriors Open Conference Season Here Tomorrow With Collinsville

If Granite City can play four full quarters of football in the same manner as was evident during the last half of the Shrine benefit game with Madison, the chances are that Andy Sullivan's crew will open its southwestern conference schedule with a victory here tomorrow night.

At least that was the consensus among GCHS gridiron coaches this week after they and members of the Warrior club sat through a long film-watching session which showed that the players were the same but the play was not during the second half of the game with the Trojans.

Improved 2nd Half
"Our second-half pursuit and blocking was better, and it was the first five minutes of the second half that made the difference against Madison," Sullivan commented after reviewing the game films.

It was the general - if unspoken - feeling among members of the GCHS coaching staff that the same must hold true tomorrow against Vergil Fletcher's Collinsville Kahoks, who will journey here to open the SWC schedule at 8 p.m.

While the Kahoks will not possess the aerial threat of last Friday's game with the 1960 conference runners-up do have a good ground game, one which was especially effective in the mud and rain against the Blue Devils.

The Kahoks beat Ciel Wade's club 21-6 after a season-opening 6-0 loss to Roosevelt of St. Louis the previous week. Granite City also will take a 1-1 record into Friday's contest.

"Yes, we did seem to move better after the weather got bad," said Fletcher in answer to the question: Could his club be classified as "mudders?" "But there were times earlier in the game when we got drives going which should have carried over," he added.

Five Lettermen Return
Fletcher did not attribute the lack of scoring punch to inexperience, but his Kahoks are a young outfit. Only five lettermen returned from last season's 7-1-1 squad which shut out the Warriors 24-0.

Quarterback Fred Riddie and his favorite passing target, End Boogie Redmon, have been lost through graduation, as was the Kahoks' hard-running halfback, Ed Krieteneyer. Those three did most of the damage in last year's shutout.

Six juniors and two sophomores are included in Fletcher's tentative lineup for tomorrow night, and the Kahoks will be outweighed considerably in the line.

"Despite the lack of experience, our line has been moving real well, though," Fletcher added. He failed to add that in two games the Kahoks have limited the opposition to just 12 points.

The Collinsville ground game so far has revolved around the running of halfback Harry Hildreth, a 190-pounder and one of the best blockers in the starting offensive unit. Sophomore fullback Joe Hiles also fits well into Fletcher's T-formation of backs.

Changes For GC
Sullivan listed several changes in the GCHS ball-carrying unit for Friday. Vic Buehler, the defensive showman last week, has earned a starting chance at fullback, and Bret Bjorkman will be switched to right end to make room for Sophomore Ron Yates at the left corner.

Another sophomore, Dan Pyle, will alternate with John Allen at right half, and Junior Bill Liernman will go at quarterback. Quentin Hoover, a consistent ground-gainer against Madison, remains at left half.

Granite City's offensive line will have a whopping 29 pounds per-man advantage over the Kahoks' outfit, tackle to tackle, although Collinsville is expected to be quicker up front.

GC, Belleville
Sophs Battle To
12-12 Tie Monday

Granite City and Belleville sophomore football teams battled to a 12-12 draw here Monday afternoon. The clubs played tie-tac-toe on the scoreboard, with Belleville scoring in the first and third periods and GC in the second and fourth quarters.

After the Little Maroons had capitalized on a GC fumble at their own 15 to push across six points in the first period, a second quarter Little Warrior score came on a three-yard pass play from Bob Karandjef to Charles Stephens.

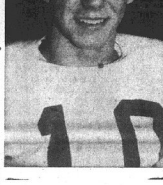

Belleville scored in the third period for a 12-6 lead, but Joe Someth tied the game in the fourth quarter by scoring from seven yards out. Joe Fedora's team had an 85-yard touchdown play called back later in the final period due to an illegal forward lateral.

The Granite City sophomores will play in Collinsville next Monday at 4 p.m.

Hoover, Buehler Cited For Offensive, Defensive Efforts Against Madison

Andy Sullivan, who exercised the coach's prerogative by singling out two linemen as the top football performers in Granite City's opening game two weeks ago, this week cited the play of a pair of halfbacks as the outstanding efforts in a 21-13 Warrior win over Madison last Friday.

They were 150-pound senior Quentin Hoover, whom Sullivan called "a real honest back," and 170-pound senior Vic Buehler, the first halfback to score two touchdowns in many a moon at GCHS while playing on the defensive platoon.

"There were a couple of times when Quent could have gone for touchdowns in the second half, but we had good defensive blocking," Sullivan said while reviewing films of the GC-Madison game.

As it was, Hoover picked up 79 yards in 17 carries against the 1960 model, and three times broke loose for gains exceeding 10 yards. Most of his yardage came straight up the middle in the second half. Hoover also logged some time with the defensive unit, and contributed six tackles.

Spectacular Play
Buehler, whose first name might well have been "Johnny" last Friday since he was on the right spot in a number of occasions, turned in the most spectacular play of the evening with an 85-yard return of a kickoff for Granite City's first touchdown of the season.

He fell on a Madison punt which had been blocked by Mike Voorhes for GC's second score, and then alerted recovered a fumble which led to the final Warrior score after Bret Bjorkman had separated the ball and Madison Fullback Terry Andrews with a low, hard tackle in the fourth quarter.

Used almost entirely on the kickoff and punt return units and on defense, Buehler led the squad with 11 tackles.

Rotary Horse Show Will Net Over $2500

Preliminary figures on the Granite City Rotary Club's annual horse show, held in annual, indicate upwards of $2500 will be netted. It was reported at the weekly luncheon meeting Tuesday at the YMCA.

Following the custom established nearly a decade ago, all proceeds will be used for community service projects. President Edward Meng said, Chairman of this year's Horse Show was B. E. Moody.

Charles Norman, manager and part owner of a radio station under construction here, discussed the new station and said he expects it to be on the air by November. He was introduced by John Herrin, program chairman.

Teenage, Adult Scuba Diving Classes Set

Initial sessions and registration periods for adult and teenage scuba diving courses will be held next week at the local YMCA. A program for high school students 15 years of age and over will begin on Wednesday, Oct. 4, and an adult program on Thursday, Oct. 5.

The classes will continue to those nights of the week for the duration of the two-month instruction periods. Identical in content, the classes consist of 32 hours of practical lecture work and eight hours of water work, including swimming, basic lifesaving techniques and first-aid, in addition to the skills of skin and scuba diving.

Certified instructors will teach the courses, and under a new YMCA policy students will become members of the YMCA for the duration of the course and will be entitled to full use of all facilities offered to regular members.

In the past, fees covered the scuba diving course only. Full particulars and costs of the courses may be obtained from Bob Dant, physical director at the YMCA, or from Al Mueller at TE 6-0356.

1962 Ford Galaxie Line Displayed Here Tomorrow

Twelve models are offered in the 1962 Ford Galaxie line which goes on display tomorrow at B. E. Hohl, Inc., 1837 Madison avenue, local Ford dealer, including a new series, the Galaxie "500." Outstanding new features, in addition to new body styles throughout, include major engineering advancements which reduce recommended owner maintenance to a convenient "twice-a-year" level.

B. E. Hohl, president of the local Ford firm, said the 1962 models offer a factory installed radiator coolant good for 35-degrees below zero, with a normal change interval of 30,000 miles or two years. Other self-maintenance features include a recommended oil change interval of 6000 miles and an extended fuel filter life of 30,000 miles.

While the new Fords are slightly shorter and narrower than the 1961 model, the passenger compartment is the same size, Hohl said.

Models Available
The 1962 line featured Galaxie two and four door sedans; Galaxie "500" two and four door sedans and hardtops and a convertible; and five station wagons, in Country Sedan and Country Squire series.

All five new wagons have a roll-down rear window in the tailgate. A power operated window is standard in both of the Country Squire models and in the 9-passenger Country Sedan, and optional in the other two models.

Four different engines are available in the 1962 Ford line, with optional high-performance packages. Three manual transmissions, one with overdrive, and two automatics give a wide choice of power combinations.

Engine Choices
Engines range from the Mileage-Maker Six to the high performance Thunderbird 380-cubic-inch V-8. With optional six-barrel carburetor, the Thunderbird engine develops 401 horsepower. Other power plant engines available are the Thunderbird 352 Speed and the Thunderbird 292, both V-8's.

Optional equipment available on the 1962 Ford line includes push button radio, heater and defroster, tinted glass, wheel covers, electric windshield wiper, padded dash, seat belts and electric clock.

The new Galaxie line interiors feature 11 different colors of durable, easy-to-clean vinyl and nylon upholstery, color keyed to the exterior finish. Thirteen exterior paint colors are available.

SIU Recommends Competitive Exams For Promotions

(This is the 29th in a series of articles based on a reorganization study of city government in Granite City by Southern Illinois University.)

Granite City council members already have taken steps in fulfilling some recommendations made by the Southern Illinois University team of government experts pertaining to the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners.

The council has adopted an ordinance requiring city employees, including police and firemen, to retire upon reaching 65 years of age, starting next May 1. The SIU report pointed out the usual compulsory retirement age is 65 years with extensions for one year periods up to the maximum age of 70 years. However, the SIU report recommended a blanket 65 limit.

The government experts also recommend the board improve its procedures for both entrance and promotional examinations by gearing them to the material and board needs in securing the proper people for appointment.

"Promotional examinations should be broad enough to take in the complete personnel record of the candidate as well as the written portion of the examination."

Need Book of Rules

Other suggestions include preparation for council approval of the preparation and distribution of rules and regulations outlining the conditions of employment in the departments.

"The board now uses a 20-question entrance examination adapted from those used in New York and Chicago. Many of the questions are excellent, but there are too many which presume a knowledge of police or fire techniques."

"Examinations for capabilities, memory capacity and skills such as reading, writing, spelling, concept of understanding, arithmetic and spatial relationships, rather than any specific knowledge of police or fire work. Examinations for promotion to a higher grade are the place for testing the technical knowledge required for successful service in the departments."

"Applicants scoring 70% or better on the written examination by the respective personnel board should be eligible for interviews for preparing examinations. It would be desirable if the scores on the examinations and the number of interviews as an additional officer are needed in the two departments. Before a man is appointed in either department his background is checked through the facilities of the police department. All applicants must be between the ages of 21 and 35 years, and under a new city law, must have resided in Granite City for two years prior to making application."

"Except for the office of chief of police or fire chief, all promotions in either department must be made from the rank next below that to which the appointment is being made. At present, promotions are made on the basis of seniority and the judgment of the chiefs and board members as to merit."

Board Activities

Three areas of activity for the board are recruitment, testing and appointment of personnel to the fire and police departments, conducting hearings on disciplinary charges filed against any officer of the departments, and the preparation and distribution of rules and regulations outlining the conditions of employment in the departments.

"The board now uses a 20-question entrance examination adapted from those used in New York and Chicago. Many of the questions are excellent, but there are too many which presume a knowledge of police or fire techniques."

"Examinations for capabilities, memory capacity and skills such as reading, writing, spelling, concept of understanding, arithmetic and spatial relationships, rather than any specific knowledge of police or fire work. "Except for the office of chief of police or fire chief, all promotions in either department must be made from the rank next below that to which the appointment is being made. At present, promotions are made on the basis of seniority and the judgment of the chiefs and board members as to merit."

No Promotional Examinations

are used.

"It would be desirable if the board were to give promotional examinations whenever openings occur open to all men in the rank next below who have been in rank for a period of time to be specified by the board. Examinations would consist of a written test intended to evaluate a candidate's personnel folder which would include his complete job record, attendance at schools and training courses, any special citations or awards and the record of any extra work or reading in his field, and a personal interview."

"If an employee rating system has been adopted, the employee's rating forms would constitute a part of the examination. Such a procedure would not only give each man more incentive to study and improve himself toward the day when he would be eligible to compete for promotion, but would raise the level of the fire and police services to the benefit of the community."

"The Board of Fire and Police Commissioners does not have a current set of its rules and regulations. It is important that these be prepared, approved by the city council and distributed to the departments."

"The rules should contain all the board's policies on recruitment, announcement of examinations, methods of appointment, probationary periods, promotional opportunities, leave policies and procedures for dismissal, discipline and hearing. The rules should tie in as much as possible with personnel procedures to be adopted for other city employees."

The men of both departments should be tested on the content of the rules and regulations during their training sessions.

"The board keeps its own minutes and other records at the office of one of the members. The secretary to the mayor handles any typing that the board may require for letters of appointment or preparing examinations. It would be desirable if the records were kept in the city hall in a locked file in the mayor's office."

"Each member of the board is paid a salary of $300 a year, and the total cost of $900 is charged equally to the police and fire department budgets."

"The members are appointed by the mayor with the consent of the city council, and of the three members, one is to be a member of the employee class, one from the employing class and the third a representative class not identified with either the employee or employing class, as provided by statute."

"The chairman is named by the members themselves. This position and the secretary's job are rotated among the members on an annual basis. The board meets regularly once each month in the conference room adjacent to the mayor's office, and meet more frequently when preparing or grading examination papers or conducting hearings."

Crash Victims Transfer

To Local Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kurtz, 2045 South Street, were in fair condition at St. Elizabeth Hospital here with injuries received in a four-car crash on U. S. Highway 50 near Aviation Sunday in which a 3-year-old boy was killed.

Kurtz's sister, Mrs. Clyde L. Edwards of 2041 Thirteenth street, said Mr. Kurtz suffered a broken leg in the accident and Mrs. Kurtz had multiple lacerations about the head and face. She said Mrs. Kurtz recently underwent an operation for a back ailment, and it is feared the accident may cause a serious set-back in her recovery.

The couple was transferred Monday to St. Elizabeth from St. Joseph's Hospital in Breese, where they were taken after the accident. They were returning from a visit upstairs when the crash occurred, Mrs. Edwards said.

State Police said William Ratterman, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Ratterman of Breese, died in the accident, while his mother suffered a serious back injury and his father received minor cuts and bruises. Three others, from out-of-state, also were injured in the crash.

Authorities said four autos were involved in the accident.

Marinate cubes of lamb shoulder in French dressing, served on skewers with quartered small onions and broil.

Educational Group Hears NEA Convention Report

A report on the national NEA convention held at Atlantic City in June was given Monday afternoon at the Granite City Educational Association meeting at the senior high school. Dale Rea, who gave the report, showed film strips of the highlights of the convention, attended by 5000 voting delegates and over 10,000 representatives from all over the country.

Miss Louise Dexheimer, president, presided over the meeting which attracted 50 teachers. Miss Dexheimer welcomed all new teachers present and introduced her officers to the audience. The social committee, under the direction of Mrs. Mary Alice Regenhart, served refreshments at the meeting.

Miss Marguerite Barker, program chairman, announced the next general meeting of the association will be held in the high school auditorium on the evening of Nov. 20. Miss Barker said that the theme of the November meeting will be "Patriotism." She added that a speaker, to be named at a later date, will speak on "The challenges of communism and how we can teach patriotism in our schools."

Other officers installed by the retiring president, Mrs. Betty Doyle, were Mrs. Janet DeGeare, vice-president; Mrs. Shirley Singleton, secretary; Mrs. Rhoda Dacus, Mrs. Lenese Kallenbach, Mrs. Maryann Candier and Mrs. Glenda Stubbfield, group captains; Mrs. Mary Muskin and Mrs. Mary Jean Sharp, social chairman; and Mrs. Maxine Dacus, teacher. The candlelight ceremony had as its theme, "There Is a Time."

Mrs. Shirley Mayberry had the tables decorated with floral arrangements and lighted with tall yellow tapers for the 6:30 covered dish supper. At the place of each member being promoted to the adult department was a ceramic graduate. During the social time and games, an original song was sung by those promoted.

Places were arranged for the department superintendent, Mrs. Rome Sturdivant, Mrs. Lupardus, Mrs. Kallenbach, Mrs. DeGeare, Mrs. Mayberry, Mrs. Carroll Clayman, Mrs. Pat Turck, Mrs. Rhoda Dacus, Mrs. Doyle, Mrs. Lorraine Whitson, Mrs. Johnnie Mathis, Mrs. Pauline Dawson, Mrs. Betty Johannpeter, Mrs. Sue Leslie, Mrs. Mary Muskin and Mrs. Maxine Dacus, 2039 Cleveland Blvd.

A bill of $231 paid to Leo Kamadulski for cutting weeds on 78 lots at $2.95 a lot was questioned by Alderman Edmund Bartosiak, who asked why the city did not buy its own equipment.

Among bills approved was $1882 for Milam Concrete Co. for curb and driveway repairs in the 2400 block of Delmar avenue, curb and sidewalk at 23rd and Benton streets, 2720 State street, 24th street and Clovis were $100 for Civil Defense Director George Schumacher for attending a CD convention; $60 for Alderman Bartosiak for August and September and $30 to Aldermen Steve Basarich, Nonn and Arthur Wlezie.

Paul H. Lichtenberger, president of the local C. of C. welcomed the visitors, then introduced Wayne Hopkins, Indianapolis, district manager for the national organization, who presented the workshop leader, S. Howard Evans, Washington, D. C.

Evans, a specialist for the national C. of C. Civic Development Department, described the positions of the local chambers

If you've never tried serving freshly-cooked spaghetti with nothing more than butter and grated Parmesan cheese, you're missing one of the simplest and best of dishes. But the trick is to add plenty of butter and cheese and, using a couple of forks, mix them well with the pasta.

A PUBLIC SERVICE OF
ILLINOIS STATE BAR ASSOCIATION
IN COOPERATION WITH THIS NEWSPAPER

PETIT JURY SERVICE IS AN IMPORTANT AND INTERESTING PATRIOTIC DUTY

Have you ever served on a petit jury? If you have, then you probably have a general understanding of the way in which our court system operates. This article is written for those who have not yet been jurors, so that they will know what to expect when they are called, and why it is important that they respond to that call.

Any person 21 or over who is of good character and sound judgment, may serve on a jury in Illinois. How are jurors chosen and assigned? First, a master jury list is compiled of names chosen at random from county voting lists.

The clerk of each court in the presence of the county judge and county clerk then draws a number of names by lot from the master jury list sufficient to staff juries for the coming session of court. Within the court names are drawn for assignment to cases. This method of selection assures that each panel of jurors constitutes a representative group from the community.

Lawyers, Judges Question Jurors
Assume that you have been chosen to serve as a juror for a prescribed two-week period, and that you have been assigned to a particular court and case. Before the trial begins, the judge will ask you questions about yourself, your occupation and your past experience.

The lawyers for each side may also ask similar questions. These questions are designed to help the lawyers decide whether you will be able to hear and decide the issues fairly; each lawyer is concerned that all the jurors selected be able to give his client an impartial hearing.

He decides whether each prospective juror will do so largely from the frank and truthful answers given to his questions.

Finding The Facts
Jury duty is interesting. You may serve on either criminal or civil cases, or both, but in any event you will witness our system of justice in operation as it settles disputed issues between the opposing parties. You as a juror become a part of that system. Your function is to decide the facts, and then apply the law as the facts are in dispute between the parties.

You are warned not to make up your mind until all the evidence for both parties has been introduced. This is not always easy to do, nor is it easy in many cases to decide one way or the other in the face of conflicting testimony.

But the conscientious juror hearkens to the instructions of the judge and, with the help of his fellow jurors, does his best to reach a reasonable and correct conclusion.

Rules of Evidence

As the trial progresses, witnesses testify and other evidence is introduced, in order to help the jury decide the facts. From time to time during the trial the jurors may be sent out of the courtroom while the judge and the lawyers confer, usually about whether or not certain evidence may be put before the jury for their consideration.

The many legal rules of evidence are complicated and technical, but necessary to insure a fair hearing; and therefore the judge must sometimes talk in private with the opposing lawyers before deciding questions relating to the admissibility of evidence.

The important thing to bear in mind is that the lawyers and the judge consider the jurors the most important people in the courtroom, and every effort is made to present the case to the jury in conformity with the law.

Argument And Verdict
At the close of the trial, each lawyer makes a closing statement to the jury, in which he summarizes the case and the evidence brought out during the trial, and asks that the jury render its verdict in favor of his client.

Then the judge instructs the jury as to the law; he tells the jurors that they must first decide the facts, and then apply to those facts the law as he has given it to them. Then the jurors retire to the jury room, elect a foreman, and begin their deliberations.

At this time, each juror must analyze the evidence for himself and attempt to resolve the fact issues. Eventually, a vote is taken.

The verdict is reached when the jurors vote unanimously for one side or the other, which in many cases occurs only after lengthy discussion between the jurors. The jurors then send word of their agreement to the judge. The verdict is read in open court, and the jurors' duty has ended as respects that case.

Patriotic Duty

What has happened? You, as a juror, have helped to solve a civil dispute between two litigants, or you have helped to decide whether a person is guilty or innocent of the crime with which he stands charged.

You have looked into the affairs of others, at the request of your community, to decide a disputed matter. You have actually acted as an arbitrator or judge. You have performed a function of citizenship which, though it may be costly and inconvenient to you personally, is indispensable to our way of life and our system of jurisprudence.

If we bear in mind that the valuable right to trial by jury is offset by the duty to intelligently and impartially serve periodically as a juror in the case of others, we will willingly respond when summoned to jury duty.

This column is written to inform the community and to suggest that no person should venture to interpret any law without consulting his attorney. Even a slight difference in the facts may change the result under the law.

Taxes, Insurance

45% of Venice Bridge Budget

Insurance costs and Missouri taxes continue to be the largest single operating expenses of the Venice-owned McKinley Bridge. They account for 45% of the $289,688 budget for the bridge fiscal year beginning Sunday, Oct. 1, an analysis of the budget shows.

The proposed $132,500 expenditure includes $67,000 for the taxes and $65,500 for insurance. An insurance rate cut is to be sought in the future by eliminating some structural factors believed to contribute to traffic accidents, but no reduction in the Missouri levy appears likely.

The two items are partly responsible for a monthly variance in bridge allocations, which amount to $11,412 for next month, $40,272 in November, $19,582 in December 1961, $13,912 in January 1962, $12,182 in February, $17,282 in March, $18,682 in April, $25,582 in May, $28,822 in June, $34,082 in July, $32,832 in August and $27,016 in September 1962.

Insurance spending is expected to total $20,500 in November, $10,000 each in May, June, July and August and $500 in September. Tax payments are listed as $5000 in November, $7000 in December, $5000 each in March, April and May and $10,000 each in June, July, August and September.

A budget breakdown by departments follows:

Operating expenses — chief toll collector, $3160; 10 toll collectors, $48,600; fuel, light and water, $5900; telephone and telegraph, $713; supplies and printing, $7000; cleaning of roadway, $300; and miscellaneous, $100; or for extra help, $2100; total, $69,775.
